PROOF OF SERVICE

I, Meghan Christine Belaski, do swear or declare on June 5, 2021, I served the enclosed letter for blanket consent for the filing of amicus curiae briefs in case no. 20-1652, on each party, or that party's counsel, and on every other person required to be served, by depositing an envelope containing the blanket consent letter in the United States mail properly addressed to each and with USPS 2-day priority mail prepaid. The Supreme Court received this letter on June 7, 2021, at 10:52 a.m., with 2-day priority USPS tracking number 9114 9011 5981 5983 3698 97. The Respondent has yet to receive the letter even though it was sent on the same day, June 5, 2021, same 2-day USPS priority mail with tracking number 9114 9011 5981 5983 3699 10. The Solicitor General for the United States also was sent the same letter, by 2-day USPS priority mail on June 5, 2021, and its tracking number, 9114 9011 5981 5983 3698 73, indicates it was delivered today, June 9, 2021, and was available for pick-up at 11:26 a.m. Petitioner Belaski is concerned why it has taken over 5 days for the Respondent and the Solicitor General to receive the same letter the Supreme Court only took 2 days to receive considering there is only a 30-day
