Order

The Court of Appeals dismissed this appeal on October 8, 2020. Because Appellant's petition for rehearing was tendered but never filed, a petition to transfer was due no later than November 23. Ind. Appellate Rules 25, 57(C)(1). Postmarked November 14, Appellant tendered a defective petition to transfer and several other documents that were wholly noncompliant with the Appellate Rules. The Clerk issued Notices of Defect regarding those documents, but Appellant failed to cure the defects within the time provided. The Clerk therefore issued notice on January 14, 2021 that the defects had not been corrected.

Now, postmarked January 30, Appellant has tendered another petition to transfer and seeks leave to file it belatedly. The motion notes that appellate courts have discretion to accept late filings, but it offers no explanation for why Appellant was unable to timely correct the defects identified by the Clerk. Moreover, the tendered petition to transfer appears to challenge the validity of the tax sale—but the only issue available on transfer is the Court of Appeals's dismissal of this appeal, and the petition to transfer wholly fails to address that issue. Accordingly, Appellant could not obtain relief on transfer even if the Court allowed his belated petition to be filed.

Being duly advised, the Court DENIES Appellant's "Motion for Leave to File a Belated Appellant's Pleadings." This appeal is at an end.
