Re: Google, Inc. et. al. v. John Doe, et. al., No. 20-1744
Request for Extension of Time for Opposition to Petition for Certiorari

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30.4, Respondents John Doe, David Gudeman, and Paola Correa, through their counsel of record, request a thirty-day extension (to September 8, 2021) to file their response to the petition for certiorari in this case. The petition was filed on June 11, 2021. On June 21, 2021, Respondents waived their right to file a response. On July 6, 2021, Respondents' counsel went on vacation. On July 8, 2021, the Court requested a response with a due date of August 9, 2021. On July 27, 2021, Respondents' counsel returned from vacation.

The extension request is justified because Respondents' counsel was on vacation when the Court requested a response and he has only returned to the office today. The extension will help ensure Respondents have sufficient time to prepare a cogent and complete response.

Very truly yours,

Chris Baker
