RE: Sanders v. Davis, Dir. TX DCJ
USCA5 19-40633
No: 19A1008

Dear Sirs:

I would like to apologize to the court for this delay and the fact that my petition was not postmarked until May 12, 2020. When I turned it in on Thursday, May 7, 2020, I did not foresee any reason why it would not have reached the post office on Friday the 8th or Monday the 11th of May at the latest.

Nonetheless, I have added a addendum to page 22 of the Petition for Writ of Certiorari certifying that it was indeed placed in the unit mailing system on May 7, 2020 and that first-class postage was used.

Hopefully, this is in accordance with Rule 29.2. This time the petition will be sent to the Allred Unit Law Library to be mailed indigent, as that is my current financial status. It will be placed in the mailing system today, June 21, 2020, which is Sunday. It was received--returned--on Friday, June 19, 2020, from Ms. Shryl Maulden.

SIGNED this 21st day of June, 2020.

Respectfully,

James E. Sanders
