I, John Cody, declare under penalty of perjury, that, there being no parties, other than plaintiff-petitioner Cody, a person incarcerated in the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections, to the proceeding in the 6th Circuit court of appeals whose judgment is sought to be reviewed, because no party-defendants had ever been served by the district court, making petitioner's appeal in that proceeding ex parte, I sent, U.S.P.S., 1st class, postage prepaid, the original of the foregoing Motion for Leave to Proceed in Forma Pauperis and Petition for a Writ of Certiorari,

for requested filing and docketing, to the
