MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE AMICUS BRIEF

Under Supreme Court Rule 37.2(b), Amici Curiae Victim Rights Law Center and the North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence request leave to file the following brief in support of Petitioners in this case. In support of this motion, Amici show the following:

1. Amici are nonprofit organizations that advocate for the rights of victims of sexual violence. The particular role and interest of each amicus is stated in the attached brief.
2. The question presented is whether a university must release information about students who are disciplined for sexual misconduct. Although this case affects the privacy interests of college and university students, no one with an actual privacy interest in this information is a party to the case. Amici wish to submit this brief because they represent the type of victims with a personal stake in the question presented.

3. Counsel for all parties received notice of Amici's intent to file this brief at least ten days before its due date. Petitioners have consented to the filing of this brief. Respondents have withheld consent.

Thus, Amici respectfully request leave to file the enclosed amici curiae brief in support of the Petitioners in this case.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Kip D. Nelson
