

NO 20-5504

IN the supreme court OF the united states

KEVIN L martin

petitioner

✓

CATHLEEN CAPRON ET al

respondent

CERTIFICATE OF good Faith

Comes now petitioner Kevin martin And makes certification that his petition For rehearing is presented to this court in good Faith pursuant to rule 44. mr martin Further states the Following

(-)- This court entered its judgment denying petitioner a writ of certiorari october 19 2020. petitioner believes that he presents this court with Adequate grounds to justify the granting of rehearing in this case and said petition is brought in good Faith and not For delay.

Furthermore petitioner believes that based upon the law OF this court And Fact OF this case, martin is entitled to relief which has been unjustly denied him.

He further believes that if the seventh circuit of appeal are continually allowed to apply the Bad Faith standard to deny martin appeal or been deprive of his united states constitutional right to due process see WOLFF v mcdonnell 418 US 538 (1974)

martin present his petition must briefly and distinctly state it's grounds and must be accompanied by a certificate stating that the ground are limited to intervening circumstances of substantial or controlling effect or to other substantial ground not previously presented. THE relevant fact are ground martin legal mail by counsel was open out side martin presence and document remove that cause a injury. state the ground a First and 6 - sixth amendment violation by westville correction Facility.

EXECUTED on this 31 January 2021