

APPENDIX - A. Decision of the Georgetown South Carolina
Court of General sessions. State V. Terron
Dizzley, 2009-GS-00778 (2012). Ruling of the Honorable Judge Michael Baxley.

1 MR. DIZZLEY: No, sir.

2 THE COURT: And is what I've told you about your 3 right to testify the same thing that Mr. Barr told you about 4 your right to testify?

5 MR. DIZZLEY: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: All right, now, Mr. Barr tells me you've 7 not yet made your decision as to whether you intend to 8 testify, is that correct, sir?

9 MR. DIZZLEY: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: All right, then we will - I will ask you 11 finally, do you have any questions about our discussion we've 12 just had or your right to remain silent or your right to 13 testify?

14 MR. DIZZLEY: No, sir.

15 THE COURT: All right, very good, anything further, 16 Mr. Barr, you would have me discuss with Mr. Dizzley about 17 those rights?

18 MR. BARR: No, sir, Judge.

19 THE COURT: And Mr. Hixson?

20 MR. HIXSON: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right, then, sir, I'm going to let 22 you be seated and it would be my intention we would bring this 23 jury back, tell them that we have - we will end the 24 proceedings, take up with whether or not the Defendant will 25 call a witness or put up a case first thing in the morning and

1 be prepared to go at 9:30. What I would ask counsel to do is 2 be here at 9:15 ready to go. We have prepared copies of what 3 we believe the charge to be that you can have now and take 4 with you over the evening hour. If you would please come and 5 be here at nine o'clock then we can have our charge 6 conference, 9:15 to 9:20, we can resolve any other issues and 7 be ready to go forward in whichever way the Defense wishes to 8 proceed. Any objections to that from the State?

9 MR. HIXSON: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: And from Defense?

11 MR. BARR: No, sir, Judge.

12 THE COURT: All right, then, let's bring in the jury, 13 please.

14 (Whereupon, the following takes place in the presence of 15 the jury.)

16 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen, welcome
17 back. We really are pretty close to the end of the business 18 day. As you know the State rested a few moments ago. Rather 19 than calling additional witnesses today we will wait until 20 tomorrow morning for the Defense to make a determination as to 21 whether they intend to put up a case because, again, they have 22 no burden of proof and also after that's concluded we'll begin 23 the arguments and charge. There's no reason or benefit to 24 going forward at this late hour when we change sides of the 25 case. So we're going to stop for the day and what I'd ask you

1 to do is be - and by the way, there's no windows, so I don't 2 know if I'm sending you out to a monsoon again or not, but if 3 it is if you need one of our officers to help you get to your 4 car with an umbrella we'll do our best to provide that for you
5 and what I would ask that you do is be back in your jury room 6 again at 9:30 tomorrow morning. We will start at 9:30, and 7 again this evening please don't discuss this case with anyone 8 including your loved ones at home. Don't undertake any 9 investigations. Just get a good night's rest and be back at 10 9:30 tomorrow morning. Don't call the juror number. There's 11 no need to do that. Just be back at 9:30. Any questions now 12 from our jury panel about scheduling?

13 (No response.)

14 THE COURT: All right, well, then we will see you at 15 9:30 and as we do every day out of respect we will remain
16 where we are while you depart the courtroom first. Have a 17 good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen.

18 (Whereupon, the following takes place outside the 19 presence of the jury.)

20 THE COURT: All right, anything further for our 21 record today?

22 MR. HIXSON: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Very good, gentlemen, if you would step 24 up we'll give you, again, this charge is not set in stone, but 25 if you would meet me in chambers tomorrow morning at nine

1 o'clock we'll be prepared to have a charge conference and if 2 you'd step forward and get the charge we are in recess now,
3 ladies and gentlemen, until 9:30 here in the courtroom
4 tomorrow morning.

5 OFF THE RECORD

6 (On the record, August 30, 2012. Jury deliberations continue 7 at 9:42 a.m.)

8 (Note from jury [Court's Exhibit Number Five] received at 9 10:03 a.m. Reply from Court sent back to jury at 10:21 a.m.)

10 (Note from jury at 11:12 a.m. The following takes place 11 outside the presence of the jury.)

12 THE COURT: Let's go back now on the record in the 13 case of the State versus Dizzley. We have a message from the 14 jury, ladies and gentlemen, or counsel, you want to step up 15 and look at it? Have you already seen it?

16 MR. BARR: I've seen it, Judge.

17 THE COURT: All right, very good. It would be the 18 State's intention at this time to bring the jury back, 19 including our alternates, and give an Allen charge and I'll be 20 glad to hear from either side as to whether you object or 21 concur with that procedure. What says the State?

22 MR. HIXSON: I concur, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right, and Mr. Barr, you want to be 24 heard?

25 MR. BARR: Your Honor, I just need to consult with my 1 client for just a second.

2 THE COURT: Very good. We'll wait a moment.

3 MR. BARR: Nothing from the Defendant, Judge.

4 THE COURT: Very good. Madam court reporter, let's 5 mark this as a Court's Exhibit, please, this note, and would 6 you please bring our two alternate jurors from the back and 7 then would you please bring our jury panel from the jury room.

8 MR. BARR: And Judge, I think we've just got one now.

9 THE COURT: Are we down to one now, all right.

10 (Whereupon, the following takes place in the presence of 11 the jury at 11:25 a.m.)

12 THE COURT: Welcome. I don't think you're going to 13 need your pad. That's what some of the jurors are asking. I 14 can hear them in the back. So I think you're fine where you 15 are. That's fine. We'll wait a moment. We're fine. We're also 16 waiting on our alternate to join us. So we'll just be at ease
17 for a moment. Ladies and gentlemen, just while we are waiting 18 for our others to join us I want to thank you for coming back 19 today. I know that probably some of you, if you were like me, 20 were confronted by a flood on the way home yesterday and I
21 couldn't help but go notice as I drove by your business, Mr.
22 Thompson, I believe it flooded yesterday; did it not?

23 MR. THOMPSON: No, no.

24 THE COURT: It did not? All right, well, it had some 25 heavy standing water near it.

1 MR. THOMPSON: It was close.

2 THE COURT: Very good. Well, I, I appreciate your 3 willingness to be back today and when we had such adverse 4 weather conditions yesterday. We're going to wait just one 5 moment for our alternate and we have at least one of our 6 alternates is still remaining with us.

7 While we have our 12 though assembled in the courtroom
8 let me ask, ladies and gentlemen, when we were apart from one 9 another last night is there any member of the jury panel who 10 had a discussion with any third person concerning or any other 11 jury panel member for that matter during the evening break
12 concerning the facts of this case? If you did please raise 13 your hand.

14 (No response.)

15 THE COURT: And again, let's let the record reflect no 16 one has raised their hands. Thank you for complying with the 17 Court's request. Welcome back, and we still, we still have 18 Ms. Morrison with us this morning as well, is that correct?
19 All right, good. Here she comes. Good morning.

20 All right, and ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to ask you 21 if you would just secure the back door so that we won't have 22 people coming and going as we talk with the jury here.

23 Ladies and gentlemen, first of all, welcome back to the 24 courtroom and I have received your message that you've been 25 unable to reach a verdict in the case, and as I instructed you

1 earlier and as we're all aware the verdict in this case must 2 be unanimous. Now just thinking about this though at any time 3 there is a matter in dispute it isn't always easy for even two 4 people to agree who may be discussing it, much less 12, and so 5 when 12 are required to agree on something well it's even more 6 difficult and in most cases I think we would all agree that 7 absolute certainty can never be reached and that's not what is 8 expected. However, you have a duty to make every reasonable 9 effort to reach a unanimous verdict if you can. In doing this 10 you should consult with one another just as you have been 11 doing, express your own views, but listen openly to the 12 opinions of your fellow jurors, tell each other how you feel 13 and why you feel that way and discuss your differences with 14 open minds as opposed to closed minds, and although the 15 verdict of the jury must be unanimous every one of you has the 16 right to your own opinion and the verdict that you agree to 17 must be your own verdict, the result of your own convictions 18 and you should not give up a firmly held belief merely to be 19 in agreement with fellow jurors. The majority should consider 20 the minority's opinion and the minority should consider the 21 majority's opinion and each of you should consider the others 22 opinion. You should carefully consider and respect the 23 opinions of each other and reevaluate your position for its 24 reasonableness, correctness and impartiality. You must lay 25 aside all outside matters and reexamine the questions before

1 you based on the law as I gave you and the evidence as you
2 found it in the case.

3 Now, let's talk about what happens if you do not agree or 4 cannot agree on a verdict. If that happens and the Court 5 declares a mistrial and what that means is that nobody wins, 6 neither the State nor the Defendant. It just means that at 7 some future time this case will be tried again with some other 8 jury sitting where, where you sit today. The same 9 participants will come in, same witnesses, most likely give 10 the same testimony, the same lawyers will basically ask the 11 same questions and we'll go through the entire process of the 12 trial again.

13 Now, you were selected in the same manner and from the 14 same jury pool really, the community, as any future jury will 15 be and there's no reason for me to suppose or expect that the 16 case would ever be submitted to 12 more intelligent and 17 capable, that is capable, impartial and conscientious and 18 competent jurors than you are and that some greater evidence 19 or more or clear evidence will be adduced on one side or the 20 other.

21 So, ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to ask you to return 22 to your deliberations one more time. If you're unable to 23 reach a verdict please advise me of that, but I ask you in 24 compliance with the instructions that I've given you to go 25 back and try again and out of respect for you and your efforts

1 we're going to remain where we are while you return to the 2 jury room. Thank you, ladies and gentlemen.

3 (Whereupon, the following takes place outside the 4 presence of the jury.)

5 THE COURT: That's fine. If they wish to take a smoke
6 break please give them that opportunity. Now, any objection 7 to the charge that's just been given by the Court from the 8 State?

9 MR. HIXSON: No, Your Honor.

10 MR. BARR: No, Judge.

11 THE COURT: And from Defense. Then hearing none then 12 we're ready to move into other business now, Mr. Hixson, and 13 please call your next case.

14 OFF THE RECORD

15 (On the record. Note from jury at 12:20 p.m. The following 16 takes place outside the presence of the jury.)

17 THE COURT: Let's go back in the record, on the record 18 in the case of the State versus Dizzley and while everyone is 19 coming back in let's go ahead and bring the jury in and let's 20 bring our alternate jurors. Ms. Owens, if you'd bring the 21 alternate jurors as well into the courtroom.

22 (Whereupon, the following takes place in the presence of 23 the jury.)

24 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen, welcome
25 back and Mr. Grate, Mr. Foreman, ladies and gentlemen of the 1 jury, I've received a message that tells me that the jury is 2 still deadlocked and unable to reach a decision in this case

3 and I wanted to, first of all, tell you one or two things that 4 I have on my mind and heart about this matter. First of all, 5 I don't want you to think in any way that your exercise as 6 jurors has been a failure on your part because you could not 7 reach a verdict. That's not a failure on your part. That's 8 really the strength of our system because we bring diverse 9 citizens from different backgrounds all from the same 10 community to hear a set of facts and make a decision as to 11 whether or not in criminal court a person is guilty or 12 innocent.

13 Now, what you've told us is that you can't reach a 14 unanimous decision, and I would say to you to that that's not 15 a failure on your part. That's actually a strong message to 16 the Prosecution that they are unable to meet the burden of 17 proof to the extent that they can bring back a unanimous 18 verdict.

19 Now, the way this process actually works is it is up to 20 the Solicitor as to whether they will dismiss the charge or 21 whether they will retry this case or perhaps redevelop the 22 charge in some way and bring a separate charge of some kind 23 and try that. It's a - the decision rests with the Solicitor.
24 It's not within the control of the Defendant, but what's going 25 to happen here is the Court is going to declare a mistrial,
