SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

RODNEY BERRYMAN Sr., -PETITIONER

VS.

ROBERT WONG et al., -RESPONDENT

NOTICE: TO REQUEST EXTENSION OF TIME
TO FILE REPLY BRIEF....

Petitioner request for extension of time to file reply brief on or before November 13, 2020, due to, counsel for respondent may take the full 30 days to file "Brief in Opposition on October 23, 2020." In which, it will take 5 to 7 days for petitioner to receive "a copy of the Brief in Opposition." Which will only leave petitioner with 7 days to file a reply brief.

It normally takes San Quentin five (5) days for a inmate to receive his legal mail. But with COVID-19 it could take up to 7 days. It must be noted that San Quentin prison law library have been closed over three (3) months due to COVID-19. But a officer do go to each housing unit once a week for any of are request and to make copies for us.

As this honorable Court may see that petitioner is under a hardship. And petitioner have not had legal help from present counsel years. It also must be noted that petitioner will try his best to file the reply brief in 7 days. But may not be able due to the hardship addressed herein above on this page.

Sincerely, Rodney Berryman Sr., Dated October 7, 2020....
