Report Medicaid Fraud: 1-800-533-0686

Many people throughout the State have been impacted by the COVID-19 Coronavirus Pandemic. Because of this pandemic, SNAP, Medical Assistance, and TANF households with a certification period ending in March, April, May, or June 2020 had or will have their certification periods extended for six (6) additional months. These case(s) will not close for failure to renew your benefits. Do not go to the Gateway website or complete a paper renewal form to complete your renewal. It has already been completed.

- If your certification ended on March 31, 2020, your certification period was extended through September 30, 2020.
- If your certification ended on April 30, 2020, your certification period was extended through October 31, 2020.
- If your certification ended on May 31, 2020, your certification period was extended through November 30, 2020.
- If your certification ends on June 30, 2020, your certification period has been extended through December 31, 2020

When your next renewal is due, we will send you a notice to let you know it is time to renew your benefits.

If you have questions about this notice, please contact us by phone at 1-877-423-4746.

Policy Manual Reference for this action is: These are temporary policies and procedures that have been implemented due to a pandemic or disaster. Policy will not reflect the temporary policy/procedural changes.
