SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

JEFFREY MURRAY

— PETITIONER

(Your Name)

VS.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

— RESPONDENT(S)

APPLICATION TO EXTEND THE TIME TO FILE
A PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Now comes the Petitioner in the above-entitled matter and states the following in support:

STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION

This Court has jurisdiction to review the decision of the Rhode Island Supreme Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1257(a), as the Rhode Island Supreme Court has (1) decided an important federal question in a way that conflicts with the decision of another state court of last resort, (2) decided an important question of federal law that has not been, but should be, settled by this Court, and (3) decided an important federal question in a way that conflicts with relevant decisions of this Court.

- the date the judgment or order sought to be reviewed was entered on:

October 16, 2019

- the date of any order respecting re-hearing was entered on:

JUSTIFICATION FOR THE EXTENSION OF TIME

1.) The federal questions which are to be presented to the Court are somewhat complex to formulate, and the legal issues contained therein, require a fair amount of research to charge the understanding of the Supreme Court on the gravity of those issues on which review is sought, and to prove to the Court the appropriateness of granting a petition for a Writ of Certiorari.

2.) The judgment or order sought to be reviewed contains two separate appeals (i.e., Case No. 2016-0132-C.A. and Case No. 2017-0400-C.A.) but were ultimately consolidated by the Rhode Island

Supreme Court, as some of the issues presented overlapped and were at least partially relatable.

3.) Petitioner is currently imprisoned within the confines of the Adult Correctional Institutions (A.C.I.) (Medium Security) in Cranston, B.I. 02920 and is proceeding in this matter as a pro-se litigant, and therefore, would greatly appreciate the extra time to file a petition for a Writ of Certiorari as allowed pursuant to Rule 13(5) of the Supreme Court Rules of the United States.

4.) Petitioner currently has a 'Motion For Relief' pending within the Rhode Island Superior Court, pursuant to Rule 60(b)(5) and subsection (6) of the Superior Court Rules of Civil Procedure, and if the requested relief is granted, Petitioner may no longer possess standing to file a petition for a Writ of Certiorari in the Supreme Court, as Petitioner's sentence will have ended, thereby causing his federal constitutional claims to perhaps become moot.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests an extension of time to file a petition for a Writ of Certiorari in this Court to review the decision of the Rhode Island Supreme Court for all of the of forementioned reasons, as well as for any other reason(s) that this Court may deem appropriate.

Respectfully submitted:
