I am 73 years old and my husband is 75 years old. The IRS began illegally confiscating 100% of my husband's Social Security payments in December 2007 & 56.4% of my Social Security payments in July 2014 (prior to July 2014, 15% of my Social Security payments was being illegally confiscated by the IRS). In July 2017, the IRS began illegally confiscating 100% of my Social Security payments as well, thereby forcing my husband and me into bankruptcy [Case No. 17-16354TBM, U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Colorado.] While the IRS stopped illegally confiscating 100% of my husband's and my Social Security payments in October 2017, the agency may now be planning to resume taking some or all of my and my husband's Social Security payments--despite the order of discharge in our bankruptcy case. The IRS had illegal liens in excess of $750,000 on my and my spouse's home until January-February 2018—meaning that we could not obtain a reverse mortgage on it to access any equity we would otherwise have in the property. The IRS released some of the illegal liens by a series of releases starting in early January of 2018, but in late February of 2018 purported to "reverse" the releases and reinstated the illegal liens. Our home was subsequently illegally sold to LNV Corporation under order of Judge Raymond P. Moore in Case No. 14-cv-00955-RM in the United States District Court for the District of Colorado. Our financial situation has been dire since 2012 and is worse today.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
