CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

United States Constitution
Amendment XIV, §1	1

PETITION FOR REHEARING

Pursuant to Rule 44.1 of the Rules of this Court, Petitioner Requests this Petition for a Rehearing of the Aforementioned Cause and, in support, respectfully shows:

Petitioner's constitutional due process rights were denied — A violation of the U.S. Constitution's Fourteenth Amendment. Petitioner was framed into privy, Res Judicata, sanctions and attorneys fees because she was not represented by an attorney.

This Court must see that biased decisions developed from this case since Respondent's attorney, Ned C. Gold, Jr., shared the same law office with a former appellate Court Judge, Donald Ford, Jr.

UPON his retirement MARY JANE TRAPP, Judge of the Appellate Court who signs off on the decisions, TOOK his place. Respondent, nor his Attorney, could do no wrong, even when they lied, filed fraudulent and frivolous pleadings that were untimely and participated in other deceitful acts that all of the Lower Courts purposely overlooked.

This case has cost the TAX-PAYERS thousands of dollars. If this Court cannot see that UN-JUSTICE was the basis of this case, then corruption in courts continues to thrive, even in the highest Court of the United States of America. That is sad.

I am an elderly senior citizen of 98-years old. My husband and I worked hard, smart and clean to buy our house. Now, some young, slimy waterproofing contractor destroyed our house with mold, mildew, cracks and thousands of dollars in out-of-pocket expenses to represent cases, including my daughter's case that Respondent initiated the litigation, which monopolized our lives for the past six years.

It is time for the under-lying judges, Respondent and Respondent's counsel to start getting some out-of-pocket expenses, like Petitioner and her daughter have for the Lower Courts' misrepresentation of justice. This is America? There should be some organizations out there to monitor how the courts waste the Taxpayers' dollars with biased and erroneous decisions. It is a shame The Courts will not realize this until stories develop from the media of true facts of corruption in courts. A fair day in court was absent.

WHEREFORE, UPON the foregoing grounds it is respectfully urged that this petition for a rehearing be granted and that the December 14, 2020 order be reversed.

Respectfully submitted,

Ann Karnofel
