MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

Plaintiff, Phyllis Marie Knight ("Knight"), who also refers to herself as Dr. Phyllis Marie Knight-Bey, D.M., filed this case on May 8, 2019, and was granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis on May 9, 2019. The court now conducts an initial review of Knight's Complaint (Filing 1) and Supplement (Filing 7) to determine whether summary dismissal is appropriate under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2).

I. SUMMARY OF COMPLAINT

Knight alleges that she "has identified herself as an aboriginal Moorish American National, a citizen of the Moorish National Republic Federal Government, Northwest Africa,¹ and as a participant in the Moorish Divine and National Movement of the World-the North Gate," and that she is "seeking damages due the unlawful eviction filing by (attorney) John C. Chatelain on behalf of his client (defendant) La Chelle Phillips without any proof of a contractual violation ..." (Filing 1, p. 1).

¹ "The Moorish Science Temple of America was founded by Timothy Drew, a/k/a Noble Drew Ali, in 1913.... Drew preached that all African-Americans are of Moorish descent and thus are not citizens of the United States. Great Seal Moorish Sci. Temple of Am., Inc. v. New Jersey, No. CIV.A. 05-CV-345, 2005 WL 2396311, at *1 (E.D. Pa. Sept. 28, 2005) (citing United States v. James, 328 F.3d 953, 954 (7th Cir.2003)). "Drew instructed his followers that all 'Moorish Americans' must carry a 'Moorish passport' bearing one's 'real' name, which was often created fictitiously by adding names that Drew claimed corresponded to the three ancient Moroccan tribes, 'Ali,' 'Bey,' or 'El,' to one's given birth name." Id. (citing United States v. Darden, 70 F.3d 1507, 1517 (8th Cir. 1995)).

Five Defendants are named in the Complaint: John C. Chatelain ("Chatelain"), La Chelle Phillips ("Phillips"), the Douglas County Court Clerk's Office, Judge Sheryl L. Lohaus, and the City of Omaha (Filing 1, pp. 2-3), but in a Supplement filed on May 20, 2019, Judge Lohaus and the City of Omaha are not included in the list of Defendants (Filing 7, p. 3). However, the caption of both filings lists six Defendants: Chatelain, Phillips, an unidentified County Court Judge, County Court Clerk Supervisor (Etta), the City of Omaha, and the State of Nebraska.

Knight alleges that she "entered [a] motion in the (Douglas County Court) on May 7, 2019 demanding case number CI 19-8911 be dismissed due to lack of jurisdiction over the person, the subject and the matter due to diversity of citizenship." (Filing 1, p. 1) The court takes judicial notice of the proceedings in La Chelle Phillips v. Phyllis Marie Knight, County Court of Douglas, Nebraska, Case No. CI 19-8911 (available on the JUSTICE public database at www.nebraska.gov).² The county court file reflects that a complaint for restitution and detainer was filed against Knight on April 24, 2019, by attorney John C. Chatelain ("Chatelain") on behalf of La Chelle Phillips ("Phillips"), who was alleged to be the owner of a residence located at 5403 Grand Avenue in Omaha, Nebraska. The matter was dismissed without prejudice following a hearing on May 8, 2019.

II. STANDARDS ON INITIAL REVIEW

The court is required to review in forma pauperis complaints to determine whether summary dismissal is appropriate. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e). The court must dismiss a complaint or any portion of it that states a frivolous or malicious claim, that fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or that seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B).

² Federal courts may sua sponte take judicial notice of proceedings in other courts if they relate directly to the matters at issue. Conforti v. United States, 74 F.3d 838, 840 (8th Cir. 1996); see also Stutzka v. McCarville, 420 F.3d 757, 760 n.2 (8th Cir. 2005) (federal courts may take judicial notice of judicial opinions and public records); Stahl v. United States Dep't of Agriculture, 327 F.3d 697, 700 (8th Cir. 2003) (taking judicial notice of public records, and considering such materials in a motion to dismiss).

Pursuant to the court's Memorandum and Order filed this date,

JUDGMENT IS ENTERED providing that this action is dismissed without prejudice for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Richard G. Kopf

possible, there is no claim alleged that arises under a federal statute, the Constitution, or treaties of the United States. See 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (“federal question” jurisdiction).¹ Because Knight has failed to drop non-diverse Defendants from the action, and has failed to allege with particularity any symptoms or physical manifestations of her alleged emotional distress or provide any supporting documentation to show that her damages could possibly exceed $75,000.00, it is also clear that “diversity of citizenship” jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1332 does not exist in this case. Knight also expressly states in her Revised Amended Complaint that she “does not wish to invoke the court ‘diversity of citizenship’ jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. ss 1332.” (Filing 10, p. 10) The court will not grant Knight further leave to amend because amendment would be futile.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that this action is dismissed without prejudice for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Judgment shall be entered by separate document.

DATED this 30th day of July, 2019.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Richard G. Kopf
Senior United States District Judge

¹ The court will not repeat its extended discussion of this jurisdictional issue from its previous Memorandum and Order.

DOUGLAS COUNTY COURT
OMAHA, NEBRASKA

THIS MATTER came before the Court on the Court's Periodic Review of its Court File. Dr. Phyllis Marie Knight-Bey D.M. (hereinafter referred to as "Knight") has filed a Pro Se Written Motion for a Writ of Coram Nobis and other statutory challenges. (See Knight's Motion file-stamped on August 27, 2019). The Court takes Judicial Notice of the pleadings contained in the Court file. The Court has reviewed the Motion, pleadings, and relevant legal authorities and now finds as follows:

As a matter of law, when litigants such as Knight herein is, "... acting pro se ... is held to the same standards as all others who appear before the courts ... 'If one chooses to represent himself or herself before a tribunal, one must accept the consequences of one's own failure to properly present sufficient evidence to sustain one's burden.'" Nolan v. Campbell, 13 Neb. App. 212, 219 (2004) (citations omitted). Knight alleges that "[f]raudulent Documents (sic) used to obtain Residence (sic) and tangible items." (See Knight's Motion file-stamped on August 27, 2019). Knight is requesting a Writ of Coram Nobis under Neb. Rev. Stat. § 25-2224 as part of her Motion. (Id.).

The common-law writ of error coram nobis exists in this state under Neb. Rev. Stat. § 49-101 (Reissue 1998). . . . The purpose of the writ of error coram nobis is to bring before the court rendering the judgment matters of fact which, if known at the time the judgment was rendered, would have prevented its rendition. . . . It enables the court to recall some adjudication that was made while some fact existed which would have prevented rendition of the judgment but which, through no fault of the party, was not presented. . . . The writ of error coram nobis is not available to correct errors of law. . . . It is not enough to show that it might have caused a different result. . . .

State v. El-Tabech, 259 Neb. 509, 524 (2000) (citations omitted).

APPENDIX K

Pursuant to Neb. Ct. R. Pldg. § 6-1112(f), “[u]pon motion by a party before responding to a pleading, or if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within 30 days after the service of the pleading upon the party or upon the court's own initiative at any time, the court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.” A Writ of Coram Nobis has never been construed to operate as a Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment or a Motion for a New Trial. As a result of the Knight’s actions and her failure to follow the Court’s Orders, she was removed from the Courtroom on August 23, 2019. (See Order file-stamped on August 23, 2019). The only evidence received in this matter was an affidavit that was not objected to. (Id.).

A Writ of Coram Nobis has been referred to as the equivalent of a “Hail Mary” pass which ‘. . . in American football . . . a long forward pass made in desperation at the end of a game, with only a small chance of success.’ Kathleen M. Bure, Coram Nobis and State v. Stinney: Why South Carolina Should Revitalize America’s Legal “Hail Mary”, 68 S.C. L. Rev. 917, 923–25 (2017). “Generally, coram nobis is unavailable to correct errors at a trial . . . It is also unavailable to review the evidence presented at the trial . . . Issues concerning the sufficiency of the evidence or the credibility of witnesses are not cognizable in coram nobis proceedings; rather, those issues are to be settled at trial, and, when appropriate, on the record on direct appeal.” 39 Am Jur 2d Habeas Corpus and Postconviction Remedies § 194 (citations omitted).

Consequently, the Writ of Coram Nobis is not an available remedy as it was the Defendant’s actions that caused her removal from the Courtroom and therefore any evidence she wanted this Court to consider was not offered. The Court did not consider any other evidence that may have been offered in prior hearings. Thus, the Court is uncertain as to what fraudulent documents that Knight is referencing.

Assuming arguendo that the Defendant is alleging that the Plaintiff is not the proper owner in this matter, then that evidence should have been presented to the Court on August 23, 2019. The Defendant may be alleging that she is the proper owner of the residence and therefore its title is in dispute. This Court would not have the subject matter jurisdiction to address any title dispute and that matter would need to be filed in the proper forum. See Fannie Mae v. Marcuzzo, 289 Neb. 301 (2014). There was no evidence presented that title to this property is in dispute. The Defendant’s Motion does not state what relief she is requesting. Therefore, the Defendant's Motion for a Writ of Coram Nobis is DENIED.

The Nebraska Supreme Court has ruled that:

Standing involves a real interest in the ~~cause of action~~, meaning some legal or equitable right, title, or interest in the ~~subject matter~~ of the controversy. The purpose of the standing inquiry is to determine whether a person has a legally protectable interest or right in the controversy that would benefit by the relief to be granted. Persons claiming standing must show that their claim is premised on their own legal rights and not the rights of another.

In re Enyce J., 291 Neb. 965, 970-971 (2015) (citations omitted).

The Court has reviewed the remaining statutory challenges that Knight has made in her Motion. (See Knight's Motion file-stamped on August 27, 2019). Knight is requesting relief under Neb. Rev. Stat. § 28-603, Neb. Rev. Stat. § 28-1411 and other related statutes. Knight has not demonstrated that she has standing to request relief under those criminal statutes. Prosecution agencies can file criminal matters against individuals for violation of these statutes; however, private parties cannot assert these statutes under a civil action as a claim of relief. Neb. Rev. Stat. § 25-824(1) states in part "... [i]f a pleading is frivolous or made in bad faith, it may be stricken." Clearly, Knight attempts to relitigate the same issues resolved in this proceeding and she voluntarily waived any opportunity to raise these issues because of her actions in the Courtroom. She now attempts to collaterally attack the prior valid Order of this Court that has become final. This Court is left with no alternative but to find that the pending Motion is frivolous and should be stricken. Further, it is equally clear that no amendment can resuscitate this Motion.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that in accordance with the above, the Defendant's Motion is STRICKEN as being FRIVOLOUS. The hearing scheduled for September 19, 2019 is cancelled at this time. The parties do not need to appear. Any additional Motions or matters pending that were not decided in accordance with this Order are DENIED as MOOT.

DATED this 12th day of September, 2019.
