Re: Reid et al. v. Secretary, #20-2115 (3d Cir. 2020)

Esteemed Counselors:

November 5, 2020

You are being served a true and exact copy of my Petition for a Writ of Certiorari, filed in the Supreme Court of the United States. All attachments are included.

Be advised: if you wish to oppose this petition, you must file a brief in opposition within 30 days of the petition being placed on the docket. See Supreme Court Rule 15.3.

Additionally:

Counsel are admonished that they have an obligation to the Court to point out in the brief in opposition, and not later, any perceived misstatements made in the petition. Any objection to consideration of a question based on what occurred in the proceedings below . . . may be deemed waived unless called to the Court's attention in the brief in opposition.

Supreme Court Rule 15.2 (emphasis added).

The mailing address for the Court is: 1 First Street NE, Washington, DC 20543.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Poplawski
