The Honorable Scott Harris
Clerk, States Supreme Court of the United States
One First Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C., 20543

Re: No. 20-651; Cook Children's Medical Center v. T.L., a Minor, and Mother, T.L., on her behalf; In the Supreme Court of the United States

Dear Mr.Harris:

The petition for a writ of certiorari in the above-captioned case was filed on November 10, 2020, and placed on the docket on November 13, 2020. The response to the petition for writ of certiorari is currently due on December 14, 2020. Respondents respectfully request, under Rule 30.4 of the Rules of this Court, an extension of seven days to file their brief in opposition.

This short extension is necessary because Petitioner surprised Respondents by filing its writ for certiorari well before the 90-day deadline, and shortly after Respondents agreed to a request by Petitioner for an extension of time to file a motion for reconsideration of the Supreme Court of Texas's decision to deny review in the above-captioned case. Counsel has been, among other matters, preparing (1) to meet briefing and exhibit deadlines, on November 25, 2020 and December 10, 2020, in a confidential multimillion dollar arbitration between a company and its insurer, (2) a Petition for Review in the Supreme Court of Texas in Ex Parte Steven Garcia, No. 05-19-00964-CV due December 11, 2020, and (3) an amicus brief, to be filed in the Supreme Court of Texas in December 2020, in a case in which the court is hearing oral argument. Counsel is in the process of seeking extensions of some of these deadlines.

Counsel for Petitioner does not object to the requested extension of time.

Respectfully submitted,

Jillian Lee Schumacher
