RE: Notice to the Attorney General

Rule 5.1 implements 28 U.S.C. §2403 New Rule 5.1 requires a party that files a pleading, written motion, or other paper drawing in question the constitutionality of a Federal or State statute to file a notice of Constitutional Question and serve it on the United States Attorney General or State Attorney General. The party must promptly file and serve the notice of Constitutional Question.

The papers submitted purposely identify that the Constitutionality of a Federal or State statute is drawn in question. This is not the first notice sent to inform about the above.

Petitioner filed for Mandamus which brought into question the Constitutionality of the United States Constitution under the 1st , 2nd , 4th 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, and 14th Amendment.

This letter is enclosed as related to the above regulation.

Respectfully Submitted,

Theresa S. Romain(Petitioner)
