CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

Rights to Procedural Due Process

Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments

Equal Protection (mental stability to litigate while going through inpatient treatment for Deep Depression)

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner was Denied The Ability to be Present at a Disciplinary Hearing, nor to have witnesses or evidence even though it was a D.A. Referral which The D.A. Picked up and when The Petitioner Requested evidence The D.A. Dismissed Petitioner Did file a writ to State Superior Court, Court of Appeals, State Supreme and then Federal Court.

Federal District Court Dismissed and told Petitioner to file 1983 because he was a lunatic they did not take him from him and though it changed his based on the history Petitioner had to the Panel Board and because of the violent nature of the disciplinary The Board Psychologist Determined Petitioner unsuitable and he was given a 10 year ban. Petitioner Filed a 60(b)(6) motion as The District Court Dismissed. Plaintiff was Placed in Psychiatric In-Patient care due to DEEP Depression and he was under care was being experimented with and he went on hunger strike (Petitioner is still in Psychiatric in Patient Program and medication still being experimented with for DEEP Depression) Petitioner Did file a motion to The District Court Denial and when not discussed and could focus mind and it did file a notice of appeal which was 3 days past the time to file it. Plaintiff Asked District Court for appointment of counsel with The District Court (which was not given) because the Depression and charges of medication made it hard for Petitioner to focus on case or time limits.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

Petitioner is suffering from clinical Deep Depression. He has been in a Mental Health Psychiatric In Patient. He has been experimenting with numerous medications for his treatment which has had him not mentally capable of giving all the attention necessary for litigation. Petitioner has shown that he does have

Due Process Rights which have been violated and just because he had a indeterminate sentence did not mean that the finding of guilt didn't affect Petitioner for as the transcripts show he was given a 10 year denial and the 9th Circuit Dismissed his case for being 3 days late filing an appeal when he was on hunger strikes and suicidal as well as under different medications which they still have not got correct and started Petitioner on another medication two days ago for the last four medications have not worked and had side effects where Petitioner could not summon enough to get out of bed until where he was dangerously suicidal. It would be a travesty of justice to say that Deep Depression which Petitioner is in a Psychiatric In Patient Program for does not interfere with his ability to litigate.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
