Notice of Judges and Officials' Oath – Bound Obligations and Fiduciary Duties

Article VI

“All debts contracted and engagements entered into, before the adoption of this Constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this Constitution, as under the Confederation. This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding. The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.”

Article 1, Section X

“All debts shall be payable in gold or silver coin”

Amendment V

“No Person shall be deprived of due process of law”

I Affirm, for the Record, that I do not have, or possess, any gold or silver coins, as prescribed by United States Constitution, which states that gold and silver is the only lawful money.

I submit this Writ “In Forma Pauperis”, as an enjoyment and exercise of my unconditional and Constitutionally - Secured Right (and not a feudal - fee - burdened privilege) to Due Process of Law.

A demand for a "Financial Statement" is considered as an instrument to deny due process of law and free access to the court. Such a demand is a direct violation of "Secured Constitutional / Treaty Rights, "Stare Decisis" and a violation of "Oath of Office". Furthermore, there is no law prescribed in the United States Constitution, stating that a "Financial Statement, "Financial Fee (Feudal Law)", or a "Motion" requesting permission must be submitted in order to exercise a Constitutional Right. Such a demand is considered a violation of Amendment IX of the United States Constitution and a violation of your fiduciary duties.

Amendment IX

"The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people"

Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule-making or legislation, which would abrogate them. Miranda v. Arizona 384 US 436, 125:

Officers of the Court, are bound to a solemn Oath (See Article VI) to uphold and Support the Constitution for the United States Republic. Refusal of this 'Affidavit of Financial Statement' will be construed to deny timely 'Due Process,' and considered a 'Colorable Act' violating the exercise of a Right. Such an act is a violation of the Official Oath of office. A violation of oath can result in additional lawful remedy actions filed against Officers of the Court. Under Title 18 and Title 42, actions may be taken in their official and private capacities. The Law always gives a remedy for the people against color of law actions committed by those who violate their Oaths of Office, colluding to abridge the Rights secured for the Natural Beings and citizens.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the Constitution for the United States of America Republic that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on December 14, 2020.
