QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

The question the appellant would like to present to this Honorable Court is did a "taking" occur on October 29, 2018 at the Apple Store in the Saint Louis Galleria. The appellant would also request that the court look into the appellant being "just" compensated. And finally did Apple Inc. use features of Raevon Parker's device to distribute applications to the public. i.e. other iPhone users.

CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

The constitutional provision involved is the reference to Amendment V when it states that; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation. According to the Takings Clause under Condemnation from the Modern period (1978-present) the Appellant is requesting that this Honorable court protect his property owner of his intellectual as well as physical property from what constituted a physical taking on October 29, 2018 about 1:01 pm when Appellant made a documented visit with the Apple Store Saint Louis Galleria Gruen's Bar employee who told the Appellant Raevon Parker that he had to exchange his device. According to Horne v. Department of Agriculture that a Raisin transfer requirement is a physical taking. According to First English Evangelical Lutheran Church v. Los Angeles County 482 US 304 (1987) If a regulation is held to have taken property, Takings Clause requires compensation for the time during which regulation was in-effect until date of repeal or judicial invalidation. The Appellant has not been just compensated to date. According to MacDonald, Sommer, and Frates v. Yolo County 477 US 340 (1986) Not ripe, court cannot determine "just" compensation until it is known. Apple Inc value continues to increase as it profits for sales of devices that use Appellant software programming from prototype device. According to Kaiser Aetna v. United States 444 US 164 (1979) Taking occurred. Infringement of right to exclude others. Appellant would have been the first person in the world with GroupFaceTime. According to Chippewa Indians v. United States 305 US 479 (1939) Taking occurred. Mere enactment deprived tribe of all its beneficial interest in the land.

According to Shoshone Tribe v. United States 299 US 476 (1937) Federal guardianship of tribal land does not include requiring tribe to which exclusive occupancy has been pledged to share land with another tribe absent compensation.

According to United States v. Welch 217 US 333 (1910) Taking occurred. Destruction of an easement is as much a taking of it as is an appropriation.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The statement of this case is in all consistence its a case where private property i.e. physical and intellectual was taken for public use. This is a case that violates a property owners rights to which is afforded to citizens of the United States of America by way of 5th amendment. The Appellant believes that this Court has precedence due to the fact that the United States constitutionality is in question. Also a state Supreme Court ordered the case transferred back to a lower court which should enact a ruling from this Honorable Court. The Appellant would request that the court consider the Appellants Motion for Mechanics Lien be reviewed or added to the Amended complaint because Appellant believes that had the court construed the documents as being sufficient enough to state a claim the appellant believes that the original proceeding outcome would have been favorable to the plaintiff.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

This petition should be granted for the following reasons:

1. A State Supreme Court transferred the case back to a lower court.
2. The Mechanicals Lien gave a detailed statement of account of the event to where a conclusion could have been drawn from a lay person.
3. A United States Attorney General should have intervened according to 28 U.S. Code § 2403.
4. This case deals with a large amount of revenue.
5. This case deals with groundbreaking technological features not understood by many.
6. Appellant is capable of developing, engineering, and publishing of computer applications.
7. This petition should be granted to show that this Honorable court is impartial.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Raemon Parker
