CURTIS JEROME BROWN

did within this County and State on the 4TH day of APRIL 1996 violate the criminal laws of the State of South Carolina in the following particulars:

DESCRIPTION OF OFFENSE
ARMED ROBBERY
VIOLATION OF SECTION §16-11-330

The affiant states there is probable cause to believe that the defendant named above did commit the crime(s) set forth, and that such probable cause is based on the following facts:

That on April 4, 1996, at 1990 Tuxbury Ln, at approximately 2:45 PM, located in the City of North Charleston, South Carolina, the defendant, Curtis Jerome Brown, did willfully, unlawfully, and feloniously commit the offense of Armed Robbery in violation of § 16-11-330 of South Carolina Code of Laws of 1976, as amended. In that the defendant did while armed with a knife rob one Bonnie Fipps of approximately $130.00. Facts to establish the aforesaid is that the defendant after raping one Bonnie Fipps against her will while armed with a knife noticed her checkbook in her vehicle. That the defendant asked her if she had any money and when she told him a little bit he demanded it. that the defendant took $130.00 in cash from Mrs. Fipps. Further investigation revealed that Mrs. Fipps was shown a photographic line up of the defendant where she positively identified the defendant as the subject who raped and robbed her. All against the law, peace and dignity of the State of South Carolina. Bonnie Fipps and Detective Walters are witness to prove the same.

1996, violate the criminal laws of the State of South Carolina in the following particulars:DESCRIPTION OF OFFENSE
CRIMINAL SEXUAL CONDUCT, FIRST DEGREE
VIOLATION OF SECTION 16-3-652The affiant states there is probable cause to believe that the defendant named above did commit the crime(s) set forth, and that such probable cause is based on the following facts:

That on or about 04-04-96 at approximately 2345 hours, while at 1990 Turbury Ln located in the city of North Charleston, SC, the defendant Curtis Jerome Brown, did commit the offense of CRIMINAL SEXUAL CONDUCT, FIRST DEGREE, in violation of Section 16-3-652 of the South Carolina Code of Laws of 1976 annotated. In that the defendant did willfully, unlawfully and feloniously force and threaten Bonnie Fipps with a knife to have sexual intercourse against her will. The facts to establish the aforesaid are that the victim was lost in the area of Rivers Ave and Mcmillian Ave and pulled into the Exxon shop to ask for directions to where Albright and Wilson was at. The defendant told her he live by there and would show her. Reluctantly, Mrs. Fipps let the defendant in her truck. The defendant took her down side streets and onto a dirt road. When Mrs. Fipps told the defendant that she didn't think they were going the right way, the defendant pulled out a pocket knife and told her to shut up and keep driving to the dead end of the dirt road. The defendant while still armed with the knife took her pants down and penetrated her vagina with his penis. After finishing the defendant was threatening to kill the defendant by sticking her with the knife. The defendant then had sexual intercourse again with the victim for a second time against her will. Before leaving Mrs. Fipps truck, the defendant noticed her checkbook and asked her if she had any money. After telling him a little bit he demanded her to give it to him which was $130.00. Further investigation revealed the defendants name and after getting a photograph on him, Mrs. Fipps positively identified him as the subject who sexually assaulted her. All done against the form of the Statute and against the peace and dignity of the State of South Carolina. Bonnie Fipps and Detective Walters are witnesses to prove the same.

AN ACT TO AMEND ARTICLE 9, CHAPTER 3, TITLE 16, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO KIDNAPPING, SO AS TO DECREASE THE PENALTY FOR KIDNAPPING AND CONSPIRACY TO KIDNAP FROM A MAXIMUM LIFE IMPRISONMENT TO THIRTY YEARS.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina:

Crime of kidnapping revised

SECTION 1. Article 9, Chapter 3, Title 16 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Article 9

Kidnapping

Section 16-3-910. Whoever shall unlawfully seize, confine, inveigle, decoy, kidnap, abduct or carry away any other person by any means whatsoever without authority of law, except when a minor is seized or taken by his parent, is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be imprisoned for a period not to exceed thirty years unless sentenced for murder as provided in Section 16-3-20.

Section 16-3-920. If two or more persons enter into an agreement, confederation, or conspiracy to violate the provisions of Section 16-3-910 and any of such persons do any overt act towards carrying out such unlawful agreement, confederation, or conspiracy, each such person shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, shall be punished in like manner as provided for the violation of Section 16-3-910."

RE: Your letter to Judge Norton dated July 21, 1998

Dear Mr. Brown:

This Office has received your letter dated July 21, 1998, to the Honorable David C. Norton, United States District Judge. It is improper for litigants, including attorneys, to send ex parte communications to United States District Judges or United States Magistrate Judges. See Coleman v. Crisp, 444 F. Supp. 31, 32 (W.D.Okl. 1977). Instead, all pleadings and correspondence relating to a case should be sent to the Office of the Clerk of Court so that those items can be docketed and made part of the record.

In your letter, you also indicated that: (1) you do not expect to be "alive" when you get out of prison; (2) your name has been forged; and your appellate counsel "has unlawfully interpolate [sic], mutilated and vitiated [your] trial transcripts, and dropped [sic] [your] State Appeal willfully For [sic] a whole year, without the Closing Arguments of the Prosecution and Defense, and has changed Closing Arguments also." Under Article III of the Constitution of the United States, federal district courts, such as the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina, have jurisdiction over cases or controversies. As a result, a case must be filed before a federal district court can act on or consider a matter. Also, a federal district court cannot issue an advisory opinion.

If you wish to file a civil rights case or habeas corpus case about the legal mail matters mentioned in your letter, please complete the enclosed civil rights forms or habeas corpus forms and return them to this office at the above address. If you file a new civil rights case or habeas corpus case, the new case will be assigned its own new civil action number.

Truly yours,

LARRY W. PROPEs, Clerk of Court
