HEYANGJING SHI ET. AL.' MOTION FOR LEAVE

TO FILE OUT OF TIME

Heyangjing Shi, Xuejie He(collectively, "Heyangjing Shi,et. al") file this motion for leave to file one business day out of time. Despite Heyangjing Shi,et. al 's best efforts, were unable to meet the November 30, 2021 deadline to file their petition for rehearing that Heyangjing Shi,et. al are not lawyer, They need to study every relevant law repeatedly, and they can't speak English. The logistics of preparing the paper proved more daunting than anticipated, and the filing packages were not fully assembled by the 11:00 p.m. filing deadline on November 30. The Heyangjing Shi,et. al do not believe that any prejudice will result to any party from this very brief delay.

We have not received any objection from the Respondent to submit a file it out-of-time for retrial before December 24, 2021, and it turns out that they do not oppose this Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

The image shows two handwritten signatures in black ink. The signature on the left appears to be 'Heyangjing Shi' and the one on the right appears to be 'Xuejie He'. Both signatures are cursive and written over a single horizontal line.

PETITION FOR REHEARING

The Court Clerk returned Petitioner's the petition for rehearing with a letter indicating the deficiency was postmarked November 15, 2021 and received November 19, 2021.

The rehearing is necessary because:

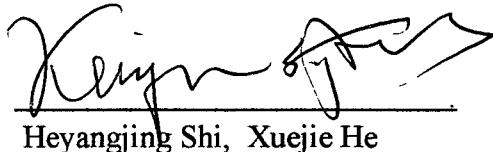

Jim J Mash (Respondent and plaintiff) was not in the petitioner's lease, the verdict was clearly wrong under GOB - § 5-703(2), should reversed the convictions and dismiss the indictment.

All the appeal courts refused to review the trial court's decision, because the petitioners were not able to pay the costs of the appeal, which was unfair under 28 U.S. C. §1915.

It violates the the Equal Protection clause and the Due Process clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

The petition for writ of certiorari is granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Heyangjing Shi, Xuejie He
