UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff—Appellee,

versus

ROBERTO ELIAS MARTINEZ,

Defendant—Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
USDC No. 3:18-CR-66-5

Before DAVIS, STEWART, and DENNIS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Roberto Elias Martinez pleaded guilty, pursuant to a plea agreement, to possession with intent to distribute a controlled substance. For the first time on appeal, Martinez argues his plea was unknowing because the district court violated Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11 in advising him that the

* Pursuant to 5TH CIRCUIT RULE 47.5, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5TH CIRCUIT RULE 47.5.4.

maximum possible sentence for his offense was 10 years when it was in fact 20 years.

Plain error review applies. See United States v. Vonn, 535 U.S. 55, 59 (2002). To succeed on plain error review, Martinez must show a clear or obvious error that affects his substantial rights. See United States v. Mares, 402 F.3d 511, 520-21 (5th Cir. 2005). If he makes such a showing, this court may exercise its discretion to correct the error only if it “seriously affects the fairness, integrity, or public reputation of judicial proceedings.” Id. at 520 (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). In determining whether an alleged Rule 11 violation affects a defendant’s substantial rights, this court examines whether, in light of the entire record, there exists a “reasonable probability that, but for the error, he would not have entered the plea.” United States v. Dominguez Benitez, 542 U.S. 74, 76 (2004).

Before accepting a guilty plea, Rule 11(b)(1)(H) requires the district court to inform the defendant of “any maximum possible penalty, including imprisonment.” Although the district court made a clear and obvious error in advising Martinez of the incorrect maximum sentence, he has failed to show he would not have pleaded guilty but for the error. See United States v. Alvarado-Casas, 715 F.3d 945, 954 (5th Cir. 2013). The record establishes that Martinez was advised of the correct maximum sentence in the plea agreement and the PSR, he referred to the correct maximum sentence in a pro se letter to the district court before sentencing, he never asserted he believed the maximum sentence to be 10 years, and he never attempted to withdraw his guilty plea. In light of the entire record, there is no reasonable probability that Martinez would not have pleaded guilty if the district court had not erred by providing the incorrect maximum sentence at rearraignment. See United States v. Crain, 877 F.3d 637, 644-45. Accordingly, the district court’s judgment is AFFIRMED.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: three (3) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: ROBERTO ELIAS MARTINEZ
CASE NUMBER: 3:18-CR-00066-D(5)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. I understand additional information regarding these conditions is available at www.txnp.uscourts.gov.
