STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The dismissal of the appeal that's been pending in the 5th circuit from May 22, 2019, to December 9, 2020, is a direct result of conspiracy and retaliatory schemes by the Texas state government, its agencies, and the district courts of Texas & Fifth circuit courts & appeals officials in response of the petitioner. What I mandamus he submitted to the court on December 8, 2020, see Carr v Judicial Officials & Employees of the Texas State Government, et al civil action No. 20-cv-02421 (H) Eastern District of Louisiana, New Orleans; (which was returned to the petitioner's supervisor on 2/8/2021)

Which was deliberately impeded by the Harris County Mailroom officials who delivered the order of dismissal on January 12, 2021, as they did with the petitioner's supplemental social security income claim that was dismissed on June 5, 2020, but the order of dismissal wasn't delivered to the petitioner until September 16, 2020, by the Mexican mailroom officials, see Carr v Andrew Saly, Commissioner of the Social Security Administration, civil action No. 19-cv-3428; 5th circuit cause No. 20-20499; submitted to U.S. Supreme Court for review on February 1, 2021,

Harris County officials and the Texas state government continue their campaign of retaliation & harassment for asserting my rights & access to courts, and continue to show callous reckless disregard of the rule of law regarding the petitioner's civil action, lawsuits and criminal cases he is presently suffering false arrests, false detentions, and malicious prosecution. See State of Texas v Carr, cause No. 1674218 Harris County District Courtroom #182. See Carr v Art Avenda, Chief of Harris Police, civil action No. 20-cv-02084 6/19/20; 5th circuit No. 20-20464. Court officials supplied to state that co-conspirators from library.

Another Retaliatory Act occurred on January 18, 2021, in furtherance of common goal when the petitioner submitted his motion for a bond reduction to the Judge David Escayo Harris County District Courtroom #182, Court appointed standby prosecutor Gore, LLC, and Harris County District Clerk Marilyn Burger in response of the order of El Gonzalez to judges, lawyers, and court officials to release 2000 inmates to reduce the overcrowded jail capacity to prevent the outbreak of the new COVID-19 variant because the petitioner had been infected with a mild form of the COVID-19 virus with symptoms of brain fog, joint & muscle pain, and health weakness (see petitioner Declaration/Affidavit he submitted to the court on February 8, 2021, in support of injunctive relief).

Which the petitioner is highly vulnerable to because of his age group 57, and underlying medical conditions of asthma, major depression, and paranoid. On January 19, 2021, the petitioner inquired about his bond amount to the inmate records officer and court to find his scheduled court date for July selection was change from February 23, 2021, to April 13, 2021, in retaliation of his request for a bond reduction and personal bond.

The Gov. Gregg Abbott acted in retaliation of the petitioner request for bond reduction and to be released as personal bond by issuing an executive order blocking the release of inmates who have been convicted of a charge with violent offense and the attorney general Ken Paxton also have been taking retaliatory action in response of my litigation activities along with the District Attorney's Office who refuse to let me plead to the lesser charge of criminal mischief to escape the systematic abuse and harassment from officers, inmates, and Harris County Administration who refused to respect my rights as a disabled person and provide the petition with the programs & services he is entitled to, as a United States citizen.

Reason for granting the Petition

Record evidence proves beyond reasonable doubt that the petitioner has been the on-going object of conspiracy and retaliatory schemes and conspiracies to commit murder with fraud resulting in the dismissal of the action by the Texas State government, state law enforcement, and state court officials to unlawfully deprive him of his life, liberty, and property that evades review in the court system but continues repeated in grossly and reason for granting the petition.

Conclusion

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
Raymond Carl Cox
