RE: Supreme Court Case No. 20-754
Albert Von Weingarten, Petitioner
v. Lonnie Chester, Respondent
Petition for Writ of Certiorari

Please find enclosed Respondent Chester's Waiver of filing a Response to the Petition for Writ of Certiorari, docketed Tuesday, December 1, 2020.

Please note: my co-counsel of record, in the 2nd Circuit and the Vermont District Court, below, was:

Thomas McCormick Esq.,
McCormick, Fitzpatrick, Kasper and Burchard,
40 George Street, Burlington, VT 05401.
Email: tem@mc-fitz.com; phone 802-863-3494

The waiver form did not allow for his inclusion, and it would be helpful if he could receive the same notices as I will receive. He is not a member of the bar of the U.S. Supreme Court.

I am semi-retired, seventy-eight years old, and have been involved as counsel of record for Lonnie Chester, Administrator of the Estate of Philomena Weingarten, and the Estate, in "underlying" litigation to which this Petition is directly related, starting in the Probate Courts of Vermont in 2004, over 16 years ago. While I believe I am in good health, I asked Attorney McCormick to serve as co-counsel due to my advancing years, and as requested, it would be helpful if he could be added to the notice list.

If per chance, the Court requests a response to the Petition, an attorney admitted to the bar of the United States Supreme Court will file the Response Brief and related papers.

Please call me at 802-249-1800, with any questions, or further directions.

Sincerely,

Duncan Frey Kilmartin, Esq.

Cc: Harold Stevens, Esq.; Thomas McCormick: email and first class mail.
