ORDER

On consideration of the papers filed in this appeal and review of the short record,

IT IS ORDERED that this appeal is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction.

Rule 4(a) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure requires that a notice of appeal in a civil case be filed in the district court within 30 days of the entry of the judgment or order appealed. In this case judgment was entered on March 24, 2020, and the notice of appeal (actually, a document captioned "Notice of Intent to File an Appeal") was filed on June 26, 2020, over two months late. The district court has not granted an extension of the appeal period, see Rule 4(a)(5), and this court is not empowered to do so, see Fed. R. App. P. 26(b).

Entry

Plaintiff L.E. Pauli Coffey commenced this action against the State of South Carolina, asserting constitutional violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. (ECF No. 1.) On January 9, 2020, the Court issued an Entry, concluding that it lacked subject-matter jurisdiction because the State of South Carolina enjoyed sovereign immunity. The Court gave Plaintiff time to show cause why judgment consistent with its Entry should not issue. That deadline has passed, and nothing Plaintiff has filed provides any basis for the Court's exercise of jurisdiction. Therefore, the Court finds that this action should be dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction, and Plaintiff's motion for summary judgment and motion for default judgment (ECF Nos. 8 & 10) are both denied as moot.

The motion to proceed in forma pauperis is denied pursuant to Ex parte Martin, 321 S.C. 533, 471 S.E.2d 134 (1995). The filing fee must be paid within fifteen days of the date of this order.

The emergency motion to stay the special referee's order and judgment of foreclosure and sale is denied. S.C. Code Ann. § 18-9-170 (2014) ("If the judgment appealed from direct[s] the sale or delivery of possession of real property, the execution of the judgment shall not be stayed unless a written undertaking be executed on the part of the appellant, with two sureties, to the effect that during the possession of such property by the appellant he will not commit or suffer to be committed any waste thereon and that if the judgment be affirmed he will pay the value of the use and occupation of the property from the time of the execution of the undertaking until the delivery of possession thereof pursuant to the judgment, not exceeding a sum to be fixed by a judge of the court by which judgment was rendered and which shall be specified in the undertaking." (emphasis added)).
