Hamid Reza Ardaneh

Translated by Fatemeh Mashhadikhalil

Date of translate: 11/04/2019

Translated voice messages and text messages from Sanaz Siyonit (alleged victim) to Mitra Ardaneh (defendant's sister). Defendant is Hamidreza Ardaneh in Middlesex Superior Court case No.1681CR00418

Voice message sent by Sanaz Siyonit to Mitra Ardaneh: The way he wants to go to Iran has nothing to do with me. I wanted to give him seven thousand dollars plus a thousand dollars for his flight yesterday, but he didn't accept. Now even if he dies I'll not give him a single cent.

Text message sent by Sanaz Siyonit to Mitra Ardaneh: the police forces him to leave the house, he doesn't have the right to get near Amir and I.

Text message sent by Mitra Ardaneh to Sanaz Siyonit: Where is he now?

Text message sent by Sanaz Siyonit to Mitra Ardaneh: We got him a hotel last night. I packed all his stuff so that my uncle gives it to him. We have court date in two weeks. The flight tickets will be bought for him. They'll give him a thousand dollars. If he doesn't want to go back to Iran tell him to go to Europe where his friends are.

Text message sent by Mitra Ardaneh to Sanaz Siyonit: He cant do anything with a thousand dollars.

Text message sent by Sanaz Siyonit to Mitra Ardaneh: He can go to Europe or anywhere else that he wants. Imagine him as a dead person from now on because he is in a really bad situation.

Text message send by Mitra Ardaneh to Sanaz Siyonit: Go finish this problem and let him go.

Text message sent by Sanaz Siyonit to Mitra Ardaneh: If he doesn't accept, he will go to the jail. What is he thinking? He is crazy. He thinks that he is collecting evidence from us. I'll fuck his mouth. I'll do something so he go back with all the misery. This is the end if he can't undrestand it he will be sent to the jail until he gets deported. He is dumb he doesn't undrestand.

Text message send by Mitra Ardaneh to Sanaz Siyonit: What could he do or where could he go with one thousand dollars? He doesn't have anything here.

Text message sent by Sanaz Siyonit to Mitra Ardaneh: If he accepts I'll give him one thousand dollars from my own stupid wage.

So it will be three thousand dollars equal hundred million Toman or more. He can take back the house and sell it and do whatever he wants. This way he will go back with a little respect and not like a offender that police take him to the airport. There are available flights for tonight. If not we're done. Answer Tell him fifteen thousand dollars so he becomes donkey (to fool him )

Text message sent by Mitra Ardaneh to Sanaz Siyonit: Do you think I'm doing a deal?

Text message sent by Sanaz Siyonit to Mitra Ardaneh: If he doesn't go back he will get arrested. Let me know in five minutes, the police are waiting.

Text message sent by Mitra Ardaneh to Sanaz Siyonit: What happend?

Text message sent by Sanaz Siyonit to Mitra Ardaneh: We were giving him seven thousand dollars and we bought his ticket that he can start a new life but he realy doesn't deserve it. Anyway it doesn't matter anymore. I did what I had to do from the beginning and he said he will not leave and he said that he did this to show that we offered him money(a bribe)

Text message sent by Hamidreza Ardaneh to Jacob Babai(Sanaz Siyonit's uncle: I canceled the flight ticket so you don't waste money.

Text message sent by Jacob Babai to Hamidreza Ardaneh: Ok thank you

Text message sent by Hamidreza Ardaneh to Jacob Babai: Please tell Sanaz to take her court complaint back, if not I will bring everyone to the court. and also tell her to apply for our divorce. I will get separated from her and I will entrust our child to her.

Text message sent by Jacob Babai to Hamidreza Ardaneh: Ok good night.

Psych MD note

I am about to see the pt and will call an interpreter who speaks Farsi, the pt's primary language.

To be seen f/u after 1 week to assess with greater understanding what he is saying and how he is feeling. The pt is very concerned that I not feel that he is paranoid and he has been very cooperative but we have yet to reach a lawyer who speaks Farsi or an interpreter who speaks Farsi and this puts us at a great disadvantage. I will assess the pt for any sx's of psychosis or any other psych. pathology. Pt said that he is normal and has always been so and he is not on any psych. meds or even sleep agents either as he feels just fine.

Psych meds none

Pt tried to communicate that he had been in the USA for 8 months after 20 years in Iran with his wife and children.. He then claims that she left the house after saying "good bye my love" in Farcy and then the police came and gave him a restraining order. After several days, he reports that he left the home and went to a hotel. He claims that his wife's family tried to bribe me with $7000 if he would leave the US and not go to court to press charges against her. He refused both the money (bribe) or to go to the airport on the ticket she purchased for him to go back to Iran. 30 minutes later his wife went to the police station and made a "false report" that he had allegedly tried to harm her by punching her in the face but claims that he did not and that she had no marks on her face at all. One day later he reports that the police came and he was arrested for A & B and his wife also c/o having been raped by him. He then went to court and has been incarcerated in jail for over a year and then transferred to a psych. hospital for 52 days.

I have seen no evidence for any psych pathology but I remain concerned that he is not being given adequate representation due to the language barrier and his natural distrust of a foreign land. However, he has shown

Psych MD f/u 9/5/17

I am asked to see the pt for the purpose of deciding on whether or not pt requires a Roger's Guardian to assist in helping him make medical decisions. Pt claims to have no psych hx and also denied any prior psych issues until his wife claimed that he allegedly punched her and then asked for a divorce. Pt notes they have been married for 18 years and have been together for almost 20 years. He noted that they have 1 son who is 16 yo and is doing well and living in Belmont and attending the Belmont High School in the 10th grade. Pt denied ever being given any psych meds or prescriptions and is shocked by what has been happening to him. He said that he never imagined that he would go to jail or be hospitalized. Pt also said that his wife never never threatened to do anything such as this. Pt asked if he had any hx of drug or Etoh abuse and he denied any such behaviors but did admit to drinking one or 2 drinks a week but denied any abuse.

I asked questions for social hx and he said that he went to school for 11 years and did not graduate. Pt said that he did not like High School but does like work. Pt did note that things were every difficult back then in Iran.

Dx Unclear at this time

Rec I did see the notes by Dr. Jessica L. Surret, PhD, but without more information and time with the pt, I am unable to say whether or not he requires a guardian.

I have no information about what types of psych meds he should be given or even if he should be on any. I am aware that I have been asked to fill out papers for Guardianship but feel that I cannot do such at this time despite my concerns about his cut marks on his left arm.

I will try to examine the pt on f/u and hope that I can come to some conclusion but feel that it is very sad that the pt is in such a situation whether or not he is psychiatrically ill.

The pt again made clear that he does not feel that the doctors or judges are being unfair but rather that the decisions they have made are based on incomplete and incorrect information.

To be seen f/u after a week to check for whether or not I need to file a Roger's Guardian in light of the fact that we have yet to get the pt an interpreter who speaks Farsi, the pt's first language. Thus far the pt feels that I have been unfair in my concerns about his possibly being paranoid and said that I am wrong and that he said he trusts me when he feels I deserve it and might not when he feels I have been less than honest. Pt then asked me if somebody asks for their rights, are they paranoid by definition? Pt has been always very cooperative and pleasant but we just aren't seeing things from the same perspective and perhaps only will one day when I am a prisoner in a foreign land. Pt asked me to type into this note that he has no orders for any psych. medications.

grandiosity. Pt denied any SI/HI and also denied any auditory hallucinations, visual illusions or paranoid delusions but I remain concerned that he might have fears that he is being unfairly treated and as proof of this he says he has been in jail for over 450 days between the jail and the hospital and from his perspective without cause or justification. Judgment and insight unclear but I fear that when he writes the notes that he is fearful but I am not sure of what. Pt did say that the report from the forensic psychologist was false.

Dx Unclear at this time R/O Delusional Disorder vs Cultural Issues and no acute psychotic issues ???

Rec I am getting nowhere with this pt but hope that when he gets a lawyer who speaks his native tongue, we might get a better handle on what is right and what is wrong with this patient.

Psych MD flw over coming weeks.

The pt asked me if I feel he needs to be in the hospital at this time and without knowing the true facts of how or why he is here, this becomes a difficult question. However, nothing from my interactions with him would lead me to be acutely worried about how he might do on his own at this time.

JUDGMENT

This matter came before the Court, Kafker, J., on a petition pursuant to G.L. c. 211, § 3, asking this court to invoke its extraordinary power to intervene in matters underway in the trial courts. The petitioner seems to be challenging the commitment to Bridgewater State Hospital, as well as proceedings in his criminal matter in Middlesex Superior.

Ordinarily, this Court will not exercise its extraordinary power where an adequate alternative remedy exists. See Votta v. Police Dep't of Billerica, 444 Mass. 1001, 1001 (2005) (exercise of extraordinary superintendence power not "a substitute for the normal appellate process or merely to provide an additional layer of appellate review after the normal process has run its course")

Upon consideration, it is ORDERED that the petition be, and the same hereby is, denied without hearing.

By the Court, (Kafker, J.)

HAMID REZA ARDANEH vs. COMMONWEALTH & others.<sup>1</sup>

October 23, 2020.

Supreme Judicial Court, Superintendence of inferior courts.

The petitioner, Hamid Reza Ardaneh, appeals from a judgment of a single justice of this court denying his petition pursuant to G. L. c. 211, § 3. We affirm.

In August 2016, Ardaneh was indicted on several counts of rape, in violation of G. L. c. 265, § 22 (b), and one count of strangulation or suffocation, in violation of G. L. c. 265, § 15D (b). In August 2017, while proceedings in the trial court were ongoing, he was committed for observation to Bridgewater State Hospital for a determination whether he is competent to stand trial pursuant to G. L. c. 123, § 15 (a). He was subsequently found incompetent to stand trial and was committed to the hospital pursuant to G. L. c. 123, § 16. He has since been recommitted, and remains there still. In November 2019, he filed his G. L. c. 211, § 3, petition, in which he claimed, very generally and among other things, that his constitutional rights have been violated, including his right to effective assistance of counsel; that he does not suffer from any mental illness and has been "falsely" deemed incompetent to stand trial; that he has exculpatory evidence to prove his innocence; and that the Commonwealth is protecting the "alleged victim and her family" because they are Jewish (and Ardaneh is not).<sup>2</sup> The single justice denied the petition without a hearing.

In his appeal to the full court, Ardaneh continues to raise a myriad of claims, not all of which are easy to discern. He continues to press his ineffective assistance of counsel claim; he argues his innocence and maintains that he does not suffer from mental illness; and he makes claims about the "Jewish mafia" and disparaging and discriminatory statements about Jews. Although he states that he is seeking injunctive relief, what he ultimately appears to be seeking is a dismissal of the indictments against him and release from confinement.<sup>3</sup> He does so, however, without setting forth any sound legal argument.

First, the single justice properly denied relief because Ardaneh had an adequate alternative remedy. Relief under G. L. c. 211, § 3, is properly denied where "there are other routes by which the petitioning party may adequately seek relief." Sabree v. Commonwealth, 432 Mass. 1003, 1003 (2000). To the extent that Ardaneh sought dismissal of the indictments, that was a matter to raise in the trial court in the first instance.<sup>4</sup> Similarly, a remedy related to his continuing commitment pursuant to G. L. c. 123, § 16, lies, in the first instance, in the trial court. See id.; G. L. c. 123, § 17.

Second, we note that Ardaneh was not seeking relief in the county court from any specific rulings of the trial court, but rather from what he perceived to be general injustices done to or imposed on him. His claims did not present a situation warranting extraordinary superintendence relief directly from this court. The single justice therefore did not err or abuse his discretion in denying relief under G. L. c. 211, § 3.

Judgment affirmed.

<sup>2</sup> Ardaneh was represented by counsel in the criminal case in the trial court. He filed his petition in the county court pro se.

<sup>3</sup> In addition to raising the issue of dismissal of the indictments in his brief, the petitioner has also separately filed, in this court, a motion to dismiss the indictments.

<sup>4</sup> Indeed, while the petitioner's appeal has been pending in this court, he filed a motion to dismiss in the trial court, which was denied.

The case was submitted on briefs.

TRANSFER ORDER

COLLEEN McMAHON, Chief United States District Judge:

Plaintiff Hamid Reza Ardaneh, who is presently held in the Bridgewater State Hospital, in Bridgewater, Massachusetts, brings this pro se civil action in an attempt to remove to this Court what appear to be criminal or civil actions pending against him in state courts in Massachusetts. For the following reasons, the Court transfers this action to the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

A defendant in a pending state criminal action who wishes to remove that action to a federal district court must “file in the district court of the United States for the district and division within which such prosecution is pending a notice of removal.” 28 U.S.C. § 1455(a). A similar rule applies to a defendant in a pending state civil action who wishes to remove that action to a federal district court. See 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a). Plaintiff’s criminal or civil actions are pending in state courts in Massachusetts. This Court is therefore the wrong venue for this action. Massachusetts constitutes one federal judicial district, the District of Massachusetts. 28 U.S.C. § 101. The Court therefore transfers this action to the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a).

CONCLUSION

The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff and note service on the docket. The Clerk of Court is further directed to transfer this action to the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. Whether Plaintiff should be permitted to proceed further without prepayment of fees is a determination to be made by the transferee court. A summons shall not issue from this Court. This order closes this case.

The Court certifies, pursuant to 28 U.S.C § 1915(a)(3), that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore in forma pauperis status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. See Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444-45 (1962).

SO ORDERED.

YOUNG, D.J.

September 1, 2020

ORDER

On April 30, 2020, Hamid Reza Ardaneh ("Ardaneh"), who is presently held at the Bridgewater State Hospital, filed the instant action with the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. By Order dated May 8 2020, Chief Judge Colleen McMahon transferred the case to this district. The transfer order explains that this pro se civil action is an attempt to remove what appear to be criminal or civil actions pending against him in state courts in Massachusetts. The transfer order noted that the federal court in New York is the wrong venue for removing an action from a Massachusetts state court.

The court's records indicate that Ardaneh now seeks relief similar to that sought in Ardaneh's prior actions in this court. See Ardaneh v. Babai et al., C.A. No. 19-11228-NMG (voluntarily dismissed); C.A. No. Ardaneh v. Commonwealth, et al., 18-10385-NMG (orders of remand), aff'd, Nos. 18-1297, 1398 (1st Cir. Aug. 28, 2018); C.A. No. Ardaneh v. Calis, 17-12171-LTS (habeas petition dismissed without prejudice).

Although the instant action was opened as a "civil action," Ardaneh brings this action pursuant to the court's removal jurisdiction. Ardaneh's removed actions are styled as Commonwealth v Ardaneh, No. 1681cr00418 and Bridgewater State Hospital v. Ardaneh, No. 1915MH0286(R). See Docket No 2 at p. 2 ("Notice of Removal"). Ardaneh's repeated attempts to remove cases from state court to this federal court is to no avail because this court lack's removal jurisdiction over his claims, either under 28 U.S.C. § 1441, or 28 U.S.C. § 1443. The cases sought to be removed are several years old and Ardaneh has failed to comply with the deadlines and procedures for removing state actions, as set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a). Thus, Ardenah has not demonstrated sufficiently that this court has removal jurisdiction and the cases would be subject to summary remand pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(c)(4).

To the extent that Ardaneh is attempting to bring a civil action in this removal matter, he may not do so in this proceeding. Rather, he must file a separate civil action and either pay the $400 filing fee or move for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. To the extent he brings such an action, even if he is permitted to proceed in forma pauperis, he will be subject to the requirements for payment of the $350 filing fee, unless he has been civilly committed, in which case he would not be deemed a "prisoner" within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(h).

Finally, even if Ardenah's civil claims were somehow otherwise permissibly before the court, it must abstain under the Younger abstention doctrine. "[F]ederal courts have long recognized 'the fundamental policy against federal interference with state criminal proceedings.'" In re Justices of Superior Ct. Dep't of Mass. Trial Ct., 218 F.3d 11, 16 (1st Cir. 2000) (quoting Younger v. Harris, 401 U.S. 37, 46 (1971)). Congress has long expressed its policy that "the state courts be allowed to conduct state proceedings free from interference by the federal courts." Id. at 16. Although Ardenah contends that he is innocent and complains that he will not receive "justice," this court will not interfere with the state proceedings.

Accordingly, the Court hereby ORDERS:

1. The Application to Proceed in District Court Without Prepaying Fees or Costs (ECF No. 1) is DENIED without prejudice because no filing fee is due. Filing fees are not required for removal of a criminal action under 28 U.S.C. § 1443.
2. Ardaneh's removed criminal action, styled Commonwealth v. Ardaneh, No. 1681cr00418 is hereby SUMMARILY REMANDED back to Middlesex County Superior Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1455(b)(4) where "it clearly appears on the face of the notice that removal should not be permitted."
3. The Clerk shall close this action and mail a copy of this Order to the Clerk of the Middlesex Superior Court, 200 Trade Center, 2nd Floor Woburn, MA 01801.

SO ORDERED.

JUDGMENT

Entered: January 26, 2021

Appellant seeks review of a district court ruling that construed his initial federal court filing as an attempt to remove one or more state proceedings to federal court and that remanded said proceedings to state court. We assume, without deciding, that review of the district court's remand ruling is not statutorily barred. See 28 U.S.C. § 1447(d). After careful review of the record and the arguments offered on appeal, we affirm, substantially for the reasons stated in the district court's decision entered on September 1, 2020. Appellant's filings addressed to family contact and visitation in hospital are denied without prejudice to reassertion in an appropriate forum and via an appropriate procedural vehicle. Any remaining motions or requests for relief are denied as moot.

Affirmed. See 1st Cir. R. 27.0(c).
