OSCAR SMITH,

Petitioner-Applicant,

v.

RICKY BELL, Warden, Riverbend
Maximum Security Institution,

Respondent.

No. 8 99 - 0 7 3 1

JUDGE TRAUGER

ORDER

On July 23, 1999, petitioner Oscar Smith filed a Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis and a document titled, "Pro Se Initial Unamended Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and Motion for Appointment of Counsel/ and Motion for Time for Counsel, Following Appointment, to Investigate and Present All Available Claims for Relief In Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus." This matter was assigned to the undersigned on August 4, 1999.

The petitioner is a prisoner at Riverbend Maximum Security Institution, having been sentenced to death for first degree murder in the Criminal Court of Davidson County, Tennessee. His conviction and sentence were affirmed by the Tennessee Supreme Court on November 18, 1993 (State v. Smith, 868 S.W.2d 561 (Tenn. 1993)). His Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the United States Supreme Court was denied on June 21, 1999. (Smith v. Tennessee, 119 S.Ct. 2375 (1999)). His papers do not contain his scheduled execution date and do not request a stay of execution.

Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis

The petitioner has filed the affidavit required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a) but not the certified copy of his trust fund account statement required by subsection (2). It appears from the Motion and Affidavit that the petitioner is indigent and is entitled to pauper's status. However, the Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis is GRANTED, conditioned upon the filing of the required trust fund account statement. Upon that filing, the Court will require payment of the filing fee as mandated in 28 U.S.C. §1915(b).

Motion for Appointment of Counsel

Federal law mandates the appointment of counsel for capital habeas corpus petitioners who are financially unable to obtain adequate representation. 21 U.S.C. §848(q)(4). This has been interpreted by the Supreme Court to mean that these petitioners have the right to appointed counsel to assist in the preparation of a proper habeas corpus petition. McFarland v. Scott, 512 U.S. 849, 856-857, 114 S.Ct. 2568, 129 L.Ed.2d 666 (1994). The Court finds that petitioner is financially unable to obtain adequate representation to investigate and prosecute his habeas corpus petition and hereby GRANTS his motion for the appointment of counsel. The Federal Public Defender for the Middle District of Tennessee is hereby appointed to represent this petitioner.

Application of the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996

The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996, 28 U.S.C. §2261-66, only applies in capital habeas corpus proceedings if the state which has imposed the death penalty has put in place a mechanism for the appointment, compensation, and reimbursement of counsel for post-conviction proceedings brought by indigent prisoners with capital sentences that satisfies 28 U.S.C. §2261(b) and (c). This Court shall presume that the State of Tennessee has not satisfied these provisions and that, therefore, this Act does not apply to this case unless, within ten (10) days of the entry of this Order, the Tennessee State Attorney General's office files a motion requesting the application of the Act, with documentation showing its satisfaction of the necessary conditions.

Filing of Petition

Within thirty (30) days of the entry of this Order, the Federal Public Defender or his designee shall file a formal, legally sufficient habeas corpus petition that is in conformance with Rule 2 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases in the United States District Courts ("Rules"). If the petition does not require summary dismissal, the Court shall order the filing of an answer and enter a scheduling order. See Rule 4 of Rules.

Service

The clerk is hereby ORDERED to serve a copy of this Order and the petitioner's filings upon the Tennessee Attorney General and the Federal Public Defender for the Middle District of Tennessee immediately upon entry by facsimile and also by regular mail service.

It is so ORDERED.

Enter this 5th day of August, 1999.
