

1 other race, father to other race children, Your Honor, all
2 right? I'm that type of father. I've been living in 3 Pennsylvania for over ten years to get away from inter-city
4 corruption only to find corruption lies everywhere, Your 5 Honor. During trial every single witness perjured
6 themselves, including the Swiftwater Trooper. A Swiftwater
7 State Trooper testified in Honesdale, Your Honor. And what 8 did he testify to? His own words. You were not, I quote, 9 you were not under arrest, Mr. Brown. Those were his words.
10 I was supposed to be questioned, Your Honor, not 11 fingerprinted, charged and then added heinous charges only to 12 be convicted by a panel of jurors that are like my neighbors,
13 all white. And today I sit before the Court representing 14 myself, because I have no faith in the system here. Even 15 Your Honor stated he hasn't received all my motions. I don't 16 know what undue influence that would prevent a sitting judge
17 from receiving a defendant's hard work. Motions that were 18 filed. I asked Your Honor to recuse himself because I feel 19 you were personally attached, Your Honor. If you look in 20 that motion you will see that there was evidence admitted in 21 trial that was inadmissible by a fellow judge, Your Honor.
22 And I hope this Court understand that I'm not that type of 23 person. You know? I'm not that type of person. This 24 alleged victim should not, I should not be blamed for any 25 psychiatric need, mental stress, whatever family problems,

1           The Court: Mr. Brown, this is your opportunity to 2 address the Court if you choose to do so. You do not have to 3 do so, but you're welcome to do so.

4           Mr. Brown: Thank you, Your Honor. Before I address
5 the Court, Your Honor, I want to allow the State Trooper Ms.
6 Palmer to speak, probably, if she has something to say to 7 add?

8           DA Edwards: No she doesn't.

9           The Court: No, that's the decision of the District
10 Attorney and the District Attorney hasn't asked to so, we're 11 fine the way we are.

12           Mr. Brown: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor, okay.

13           The Court: You're welcome, sir.

14           Mr. Brown: This case has been a nightmare, Your Honor,
15 to me as a businessman, as a husband, father. The District
16 Attorney saw in me an easy target, a way to bolster her own
17 political image, a free shot if you will, with little to no
18 repercussion. Even at trial, Your Honor, the arresting 19 officer did not testify. She did not testify because it is 20 my opinion, Your Honor, that she didn't want to be held 21 accountable for the actions which brought us here today, Your 22 Honor, me, to this county which I've never been to before, me
23 being for arrested for a heinous crime which goes against my 24 religion, my way of life. It goes against everything I know
25 as a father. Father to my own, father to others, including

RE: Brown v. Pennsylvania
Motion for Reconsideration
No: 20-8015

Dear Mr. Brown:

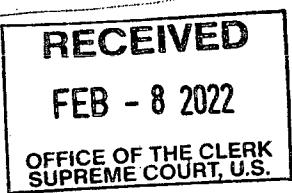

The petition for rehearing in the above-entitled case was originally postmarked October 21, 2021 and received again on December 29, 2021 and is herewith returned for failure to comply with Rule 44 of the Rules of this Court. The petition must briefly and distinctly state its grounds and must be accompanied by a certificate stating that the grounds are limited to intervening circumstances of substantial or controlling effect or to other substantial grounds not previously presented.

Please be advised the petitioner should clearly label the document as a petition for rehearing pursuant to Rule 44 in order for this Court to review the filing.

Please correct and resubmit as soon as possible. Unless the petition is submitted to this Office in corrected form within 15 days of the date of this letter, the petition will not be filed. Rule 44.6.

Sincerely,
Scott S. Harris, Clerk
