QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

1. Does the party not have the right to consult with appellate counsel about issues surrounding the appellate matter.
2. Is it required as to an appellate counsel's responsibility to raise each of the appellate issues while participating as counsel on the behalf of the party.
3. Throughout the matter is it reasonable to state that the party should be availed the opportunity of consulting with counsel, and do you find it unreasonably prejudice when one is not availed this option.
4. Are the foregoing issues such as Double Jeopardy, Abuse of Discretion, prosecutorial misconduct, ineffective assistance of counsel, Professional misconduct, deprive the right to witnesses in one's own defense, denied jury selection, denied self representation, deprivation of fair trial, and denied the right to cross examine the witness, not grounds to be raised on appeal.
5. Should counsel for appeal be removed from the matter when failing or disregarding to raise severe and critical appellate issues.
6. Does the party have the right to effective assistance of counsel while on appeal.
7. Does the law promise the defendant to receive more than nominal representation from counsel on appeal, and if so, what exactly does this intel.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The party received an letter in the mail on the 27th day of August, 2020, from Mitchell G. Styers. In the letter it indicated that Mr. Styers had appeared for counsel on the behalf of the party, and it further stated that if the party had any questions to contact him. Upon receipt of this letter the party made an effort to contact Mr. Styers from the jail's monitored phone, after noticing that Mr. Styers was disconnecting the phone the party immediately had the jail officials contact Mr. Styers for a conference call, Mr. Styers answers their call and responds that he was on a call and that he would call back in thirty minutes. After waiting several hours for Mr. Styers to return the call the party then had jail officials return him to his unit when noticing that Mr. Styers was not going to return his call. The party has made an great effort in contacting Mr. Styers by mail and still no response. After feeling neglect from Mr. Styers the party filed a motion for substitution of counsel on the 8th day of December, 2020, raising issues as stated above and it was then denied. The party filed an rehearing en banc in response to the denial of the motion for substitution of counsel. In response to the rehearing en banc Mr. Styers had stated that he had filed a brief on the behalf of the party, in his effort to satisfy the court so that he would not be removed as counsel. In response to Mr. Styers brief on the behalf of the party, the party sent several letters to Mr. Styers indicating several appealant issues that Mr. Styers had failed to raise, issues that were obvious in a sense. Again after not receiving an reply from Mr. Styers and feeling negligence the party then filed another motion to relieve Mr. Styers as counsel on the 25th day of March, 2021, for neglect and failure to raise several factual issues on the appeal, and that motion was also denied. While awaiting the response from the re-hearing en banc the party then filed an violation warning seeking an cease and desist order against Mr. Styers for his violation of the sixth Amendment's effective assistance of counsel clause. After response following the rehearing en banc from the Fourth circuit court of Appeals it is now deemed denied as of the 21st day of April, 2021. The party now moves for certiorari to the Supreme court for the United States to address the following issues found in the foregoing statement. Issues Mr. Styers refuse to raise are Abuse of discretion, Double Jeopardy, prosecutorial misconduct, ineffective assistance of counsel, professional misconduct, deprivation of fair trial, denied self representation, denied jury selection, denied witnesses in one's own defense, and denied the right to cross examine the witness.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

This petition is to be granted to ensure the safety that has been binded by the institution of Justice when referring to the united states constitution. The constitution enables the freedom of all men to be equally protected by the laws that govern these lands in this great part of america called the United States. A system slipping away is one that we shall grasp with effort and cherish as the Framers did when they approached truth. We are approaching times in society where winning is more valuable than truth, it is no longer about right or wrong, it is simply about injustice. Why shouldn't this petition be granted? This petition seeks the common approach in obtaining adequate legal assistance that does not wish to rail road an individual simply because he is disliked, and if this petition is not granted the party will be rail roaded, not because of right or wrong, but because of injustice and the fact that he is disliked. The granting of this petition will help in the fight against injustice and cure all worries of being rail roaded whereas the individual will have a chance at being equally protected by the laws governing this land. With respect to you and the united states constitution I request the granting of this petition. Thank You! Reason for granting this petition is to relieve counsel Mitchell G. Styers from the matter currently pending appeal. Seeking replacement of counsel. When you appeal your conviction, you have the right to effective assistance from your appellate lawyer. Evitts v. Lucey, 469 U.S. 387, 396, 105 S. Ct. 830, 836, 83 L. Ed. 2d 821, 830 (1985) (holding that fairness of appellate process requires that a defendant receive more than nominal representation from counsel)

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: May, 10, 2021
