Supplemental Declaration in support of the Petitioner's Motion to Proceed
*In Forma Pauperis

The Petitioner has no income whatsoever and lives with his elderly parents, who are both retired and live on a fixed income. Petitioner's parents pay all of his living expenses.

Petitioner's parents allow the Petitioner to maintain a small bank account, to which they make semi-regular deposits of their own savings and at their own discretion (i.e. not owed money to the Petitioner or earned income by the Petitioner, and money that is subject to cease being deposited by his parents at any time and for any reason(s) by his parents), in order for the Petitioner to pay some bills that are directly associated with himself (car insurance, gas, doctor's bills, etc.) and to allow the Petitioner to build, maintain, and/or mitigate damage to his Credit History and Credit Report.

If the Petitioner's parents did not provide the basic support described above, the Petitioner would literally have no money whatsoever and no place to live at all. Thus the Petitioner survives only due to the grace of his Parents.

The Petitioner's living situation has changed beginning in November of 2020. Petitioner had been living in an apartment until that time, and Petitioner's parents had been providing the Petitioner with the money needed to rent and maintain that apartment (Rent, utilities, etc.). Petitioner had been receiving approximately $1200 from his parents monthly up until 11/01/20, when he moved out of his apartment, and now receives approximately $200 monthly, or just enough to cover those personal bills that are not paid directly by his parents. That is why Petitioner's “Average Total Monthly Income over the last 12 months” is so high (it is skewed abnormally high for 4 of 12 months), and why his expected income next month is so low (Ref. Declaration in support of motion for leave to proceed In Forma Pauperis, Page 1 Question 1).

The Petitioner’s parents review his bank statements and his bills at their will in exchange for the assistance they provide and adjust their financial assistance to the Petitioner as they see fit, which usually leaves the Petitioner with just enough money to pay his bills. As an example of their frugality, the Petitioner has been chastised by his parents for tipping for a haircut, which is a common practice.

The Petitioner has been found by The Honorable Maine State Court(s) to be indigent in every single case he has been forced to defend himself in since 2016, which are abnormally numerous,<sup>1</sup> until recently in 2020 by the Maine Superior Court when the Petitioner began filing cases as a Plaintiff.<sup>2</sup>

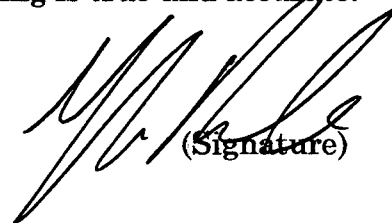

The Petitioner has also been found to be Indigent (“In Forma Pauperis”) in every case he has ever filed for Indigency Status for in The Federal District Court of Maine,<sup>3</sup> as well as recent USSC Pet. for Cert. 20–7827.

I attest under penalty of Perjury that the Foregoing is true and accurate.

Respectfully Submitted,
