

In The Supreme Court of The United States

v.

The State of Michigan,
respondent

Motion to Leave to File Petition for Writ of Certiorari in Excess of Word and Page Limit.

Petitioner request to file a Petition for Writ of Certiorari in excess of 9,000 characters and 40 count & page limit. Petitioner's word count is a little over 10,000 and page count is 41. Petitioner tried to comply with Rule 39, to avoid this Motion. Petitioner supplied only relevant facts, concise but informative arguments and controlling case law, (some with quotes) relevant to each issue. Petitioner has a total of nine (9) Constitutional Issues with the statement of facts. Petitioner do not want to forfeit one or two issues or redact important information Petitioner believes this Honorable Court needs to know.

Therefore, Petitioner respectfully ask this Honorable Court for leeway while filing Petition for writ of Certiorari.

Sincerely,

Steven B. Anderson
