RE: Nelson v. Florida DOC

Dear Mr. Nelson:

The enclosed papers were received on June 28, 2019. These papers fail to comply with the Rules of this Court and are herewith returned.

You may seek review of a decision only by filing a timely petition for writ of certiorari. The papers you submitted are not construed to be a petition for writ of certiorari. Should you choose to file a petition for writ of certiorari, you must submit the petition within the 90 day time limit allowed under Rule 13 of the Rules of this Court. A Copy of the Rules of this Court and a sample petition for a writ of certiorari are enclosed.

Your case must first be reviewed by a United States court of appeals or by the highest state court in which a decision could be had. 28 USC 1254 and 1257.

Sincerely,
Scott S. Harris, Clerk

RE: Nelson v. Florida DOC

Dear Mr. Nelson:

Your application for stay received January 23, 2020 is herewith returned for the following reason(s):

You failed to comply with Rule 23.3 of the Rules of this Court which requires that you first seek the same relief in the appropriate lower courts and attach copies of the orders from the lower courts to your application filed in this Court.

You failed to identify the judgment you are asking the Court to review and to append a copy of the order or opinion as required by Rule 23.3 of this Court's Rules.

In accordance with Rule 23.3 of this Court's Rules you must set forth with particularity why relief is not available from any other court and why a stay is justified.

You are required to state the grounds upon which this Court's jurisdiction is invoked, with citation of the statutory provision.

Under Article III of the Constitution, the jurisdiction of this Court extends only to the consideration of cases or controversies properly brought before it from lower courts in accordance with federal law and filed pursuant to the Rules of this Court. You must also specify exactly what relief you seek and demonstrate that the Court has jurisdiction to grant such relief.

Sincerely,
Scott S. Harris, Clerk

Appeal Number: 19-11664-J
Case Style: James Nelson v. Florida State Prison, et al
District Court Docket No: 4:19-cv-00082-RH-CAS

This Court requires all counsel to file documents electronically using the Electronic Case Files ("ECF") system, unless exempted for good cause.

The referenced case has been docketed in this court. Please use the appellate docket number noted above when making inquiries.

This Court has determined that the "three strikes" provision of the Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995 is applicable to you. See Rivera v. Allin, 144 F.3d 719 (11th Cir. 1998), cert. dismissed, 119 S.Ct. 27 (1998).

Consistent with 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), this appeal cannot proceed until the full docketing and filing fees are paid to the United States DISTRICT COURT. Pursuant to 11th Cir. R. 42-1 (1), you are hereby notified that if the fees have not been paid within fourteen (14) days from the date, this appeal will be dismissed without further notice by the clerk.

If the docketing and filing fees are paid, you are hereby notified that pursuant to 11th Cir. R. 31-1, APPELLANT'S BRIEF AND APPENDIX ARE DUE TO BE SERVED AND FILED WITHIN FORTY (40) DAYS FROM THE DATE THE APPEAL WAS DOCKETED IN THIS COURT. This is the only notice you will receive concerning the due date for filing briefs and appendix. If appellant's brief and appendix are not filed by the due date, this appeal will be dismissed without further notice pursuant to 11th Cir. R. 42-2.

Every motion, petition, brief, answer, response and reply filed must contain a certificate of Interested Persons and Corporate Disclosure Statement (CIP). Appellants/Prisoners must file a CIP within 14 days after the date the case or appeal is docketed in this court. Appellees/Respondents/Intervenors/Other Parties must file a CIP within 28 days after the case or appeal is docketed in this court, regardless of whether appellants/petitioners have filed a CIP. See FRAP 26.1 and 11th Cir. R. 26.1-1.

On the same day a party or amicus curiae first files its paper or e-filed CIP, that filer must also complete the court's web-based CIP at the Web-Based CIP link on the court's website. Pro se filers (except attorneys appearing in particular cases as pro se parties) are not required or authorized to complete the web-based CIP.
