In re: Filing of Documents that Exceed
Twenty-Five Pages

Case No. 3:05-mc-20-J

AMENDED STANDING ORDER

This Order amends and supercedes the Standing Order entered on April 27, 2005.

In order to facilitate the Court's review of certain documents, the judges of the Jacksonville Division agree that parties should submit to chambers a courtesy copy of any document filed electronically in the Jacksonville Division that exceeds twenty-five (25) pages (including exhibits) in length. Courtesy copies need not be provided simultaneously with the electronic filing of the document. However, they should be submitted as promptly as possible and may be provided via United States Mail or other reliable service.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED:

1. A party who electronically files a document exceeding twenty-five (25) pages (including exhibits) in length must provide a courtesy copy of the document (including exhibits) in paper format to the assigned judge's chambers.
2. In order to implement this requirement, the Clerk of the Court is directed to file this Amended Standing Order in every new civil case filed in the Jacksonville Division until further Order. The Clerk of the Court is further directed to file this Amended Standing Order in every pending civil case that has been assigned one of the following Nature of Suit codes: 510, 530, 535, 540, 550 and 555.

3. This Amended Standing Order is not applicable to criminal cases.

DONE AND ORDERED at Jacksonville, Florida, this 25th day of May, 2005.

RE: Nelson v. Florida
"Injunction"

Dear Mr. Nelson:

Your application that was received May 15, 2020 is herewith returned for the following reason(s):

You failed to comply with Rule 23.3 of the Rules of this Court which requires that you first seek the same relief in the appropriate lower courts and attach copies of the orders from the lower courts to your application filed in this Court.

You failed to identify the judgment you are asking the Court to review and to append a copy of the order or opinion as required by Rule 23.3 of this Court's Rules.

In accordance with Rule 23.3 of this Court's Rules you must set forth with particularity why relief is not available from any other court and why a stay is justified.

You are required to state the grounds upon which this Court's jurisdiction is invoked, with citation of the statutory provision.

Sincerely,
Scott S. Harris, Clerk
