ORDER

The motions “for the issuance of a published (or at least reasoned) opinion” are denied. In the motions, counsel for the appellants accuses judges of this court and the district court of being liars, criminals, and “con men.” These scurrilous and unfounded allegations are unbecoming of an officer of the court and member of the bar. This order shall serve as notice of Jack R. T. Jordan’s unethical behavior to the Kansas and New York bars, of which he is a member, and we direct the Clerk of Court to serve copies of this order and the motions on the pertinent disciplinary bar authorities.

Jack R.T. Jordan, a member of this Court's bar, has notified this Court of his disbarment by the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit and requests, inter alia, that this Court not reciprocally disbar him based on the Eighth Circuit's disbarment order.
