

 New Civil Liberties Alliance

May 27, 2022

Honorable Scott S. Harris, Clerk
Mr. Danny Bickell, Deputy Clerk
Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D.C. 20543

dbickell@supremecourt.gov

By Email and First Class Mail

Re: Barry D. Romeril v. Securities and Exchange Commission, No. 21-1284

Dear Mr. Harris:

I write on behalf of Barry D. Romeril, the petitioner in No. 21-1284, to inform you that we will be waiving the full fourteen-day period to file petitioner's reply brief in support of his petition for certiorari. Petitioner will file the reply brief on Friday, May 27, 2022 which is 10 days before it is due. We ask that the court set this matter down for consideration and conferencing as appropriate to a fully briefed matter.

Opposing counsel and all counsel have been notified of this waiver of ten days and petitioner's early filing date of the reply brief by emailed copy of this letter.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Margaret A. Little

Margaret A. Little
Senior Litigation Counsel
New Civil Liberties Alliance

cc: See attached service list

Counsel of Record for Petitioner

Floyd Abrams, fabrams@cahill.com

Michael D. Weiss, mweiss@cahill.com

Solicitor General of the United States

Elizabeth Preloger SupremeCtBriefs@USDOJ.gov

United States Securities and Exchange Commission

Dan M. Berkovitz,

Michael A. Conley, conleym@SEC.gov

Jeffrey A. Berger, bergerjc@SEC.gov

Counsel for Amici

Thomas L. Brejcha, brejcha@aol.com; btb@btylerbrookslawyer.com

Lawrence S. Ebner, Lawrence.ebner@atlanticlegal.org

Theodore Harold Frank ted.frank@hlli.org

J. Mark Gidley, mgidley@whitecase.com, egrannon@whitecase.com, dmedici@whitecase.com

Shana Tara O'Toole, shana@idueprocess.org

Helgi C. Walker, hwalker@gibsondunn.com

Thomas A. Zaccaro, thomaszaccaro@paulhastings.com, nicholasmorgan@paulhastings.com