the transmission I was responsible. When I looked at the situation, this put me in a very terrible situation. I asked, what makes me liable to continue to be – continue working without being paid? I only agreed to help do a specific job; the rest, not my liability.

Now, for the plaintiff to plead that the Court should pass judgment that I refund the 600 that she paid, to my understanding, she would be putting me through unpaid labor services.

THE COURT: She would be putting you through what?

MR. EFO: She would be putting me through unpaid labor services –

THE COURT: Unpaid labor – okay. Yes.

MR. EFO: – because I provided –

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. EFO: – everything perfectly.

THE COURT: I agree. That's what it would boil down to.

MR. EFO: So – well, we, we have clarified, she has accepted – oh, we've clarified that – why she – 953 she didn't pay –

THE COURT: Right.

MR. EFO: – so I know I won't be held responsible.

THE COURT: No. The most you'd be held responsible for would be $600.
