APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Petitioner, Dr. Medardo Queg Santos, through undersigned counsel and pursuant to Supreme Court Rules 13.5 and 30, respectfully applies to Associate Justice Thomas as Circuit Justice for the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and requests a 30-day extension of time from April 20, 2022 until May 20, 2022 to file his petition for a writ of certiorari.

1. On December 21, 2021, the Eleventh Circuit affirmed the Petitioner's conviction and sentence in United States v. Duldulao, No. 20-13973 (11th Cir.).

2. Petitioner didn't petition for panel rehearing or rehearing en banc in the Eleventh Circuit. See Sup. Ct. R. 13.5. Accordingly, Petitioner's petition for a writ of certiorari had originally been due filed in this Court 90 days after December 21, 2021 on March 21, 2022. See Sup. Ct. R. 30.1.

3. On March 16, 2022, Justice Thomas granted an application for extension of time to file a certiorari petition (21A504) until April 20, 2022.

4. Counsel is a solo practitioner with a heavy caseload and requires additional time to prepare the petition for a writ of certiorari. Additionally, this case involves an extensive record and complicated legal issues.¹ Finally, counsel was ill during the week after he presented oral argument on March 10, 2022 in Jacob v. Mentor Worldwide, LLC, No. 20-10132 (11th Cir.) (manufacturing defect claim regarding medical device).

WHEREFORE, the Court should grant Petitioner a 30-day extension of time from April 20, 2022 until May 20, 2022 to file his petition for a writ of certiorari.

Respectfully submitted,
