Re: No. 21-270, BNSF Railway Co. v. Robert Dannels

Dear Mr. Bickell:

I write to request an unopposed fourteen-day extension of the time to file a response to the petition for certiorari in this case. The response is currently due on November 24, 2021, and I respectfully request that the deadline be extended to and including December 8, 2021. The petitioner consents to this request. There is good cause for this request. My colleagues and I have multiple upcoming deadlines in the upcoming weeks that would make it impossible to prepare a brief absent an extension, including a brief in opposition in Southwest v. Saxon, No. 21-309 in the Supreme Court on November 1; a petition for rehearing en banc in Brice v. Plain Green LLC, No. 19-15707 in the Ninth Circuit on November 1; a brief in opposition in Fast Auto Loans v. Joe Maldonado, No. 21-31, in the Supreme Court on November 8; an opening brief in Juarez v. Drive Time, No. 21-11972, in the Eleventh Circuit on November 12; a brief in opposition due in Rocket Mortgage v. Alig, No. 21-428, in the Supreme Court on November 12; an opening brief due in Salter v. Quality Carriers, No. 21-55593, in the Ninth Circuit on November 15; an oral argument in Ngo v. BMW, No. 20-56027, in the Ninth Circuit on November 16; an opening brief in Davidson v. United Auto Credit Corp., No. 21-1697, in the Fourth Circuit on November 22; and a reply brief in Thomas-Lawson v. Carrington Mortgage Services, No. 21-55459, in the Ninth Circuit on November 24. For these reasons, my colleagues and I will require additional time to prepare an adequate response to the petition. A fourteen-day extension will allow us to balance these other responsibilities with our obligations in this case.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Deepak Gupta
