No. 21-274

In the Supreme Court of the United States

STATE OF OKLAHOMA,

Petitioner,

v.

JOHNNY EDWARD MIZE, II,

Respondent.

On Petition for a Writ of Certiorari to the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals

REPLY BRIEF OF PETITIONER

1. The petition in this case presents two questions of overriding importance to the State of Oklahoma: first, whether a State has authority to prosecute non-Indians who commit crimes against Indians in Indian country; and second, whether McGirt v. Oklahoma, 140 S.Ct. 2452 (2020), should be overruled. At the time the petition was filed, a petition filed by the State presenting those same two questions (in addition to a third) was pending in Oklahoma v. Bosse, No. 21-186. The petition in this case expressly incorporated the arguments for granting certiorari in Bosse and requested that the Court hold this case pending resolution of the petition there. See Pet.3, 6-8. The State subsequently filed a number of petitions presenting one or both of the questions presented here, and similarly requested that those petitions be held pending a decision in Bosse.

2. On August 31, 2021, the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals sua sponte vacated the judgment in Bosse. See 2021 OK CR 23. The parties subsequently agreed to dismiss the petition in that case.

On September 14, counsel for the State informed counsel for respondent here of the State's intent to file a petition in another case which would again fully set forth the reasons for granting review on the questions presented. On September 17, the State filed a petition in Oklahoma v. Castro-Huerta, No. 21-429, which presents the two relevant questions from Bosse and again fully sets forth the arguments in favor of review. In that petition, the State requested that the Court hold all previously filed petitions, as well as similar forthcoming petitions, pending a decision in Castro-Huerta. See Pet.4-5 n.1.

On September 22, the State submitted a letter to this Court requesting that, when considering the petition here, the Court refer to the State's arguments in Castro-Huerta in lieu of referring to the dismissed petition in Bosse. The State further requested that the Court either grant the petition here or hold the petition pending its decision in Castro-Huerta. See Letter from Mithun Mansinghani to Scott S. Harris (Sept. 22, 2021). The State submitted similar letters in every other similar case pending before the Court.

3. On October 5, respondent filed his brief in opposition ("Br.Opp."), which fully sets forth his arguments against review on both questions presented. See Br.Opp.10-38. Counsel of record on that brief is also counsel of record for the respondent in Castro-

Huerta, and the brief in opposition in this case responds primarily to the arguments made in the petition in Castro-Huerta. In addition, the Muscogee (Creek) Nation filed an amicus brief in support of respondent here, setting forth additional arguments against review of the question whether McGirt should be overruled, also responding to arguments in the petition in Castro-Huerta. See Br.Opp.3-28.

4. The brief in opposition in Castro-Huerta is currently due on October 21. The State expects additional amicus briefs to be filed in that case. In addition, the Chickasaw Nation, Choctaw Nation, and Cherokee Nation have filed or notified counsel for the State of their intention to file amicus briefs in other cases with deadlines in the near future. See, e.g., Oklahoma v. Beck, No. 21-373. To ensure an orderly presentation of the arguments to the Court, the State plans to set forth its full responses to the brief in opposition and the amicus brief of the Creek Nation in this case, as well as to any additional briefs to be filed in other cases, in the forthcoming reply brief in Castro-Huerta. The State respectfully requests that the Court refer to that forthcoming brief when considering the petition here.*

* Respondent argues that the State “affirmatively waived” its argument on the first question presented during the proceedings below. Br.Opp.19. But in the decision below, the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals expressly noted that “the State did not concede that federal courts have exclusive jurisdiction over crimes committed against Indians in Indian [c]ountry.” Pet.App.3a. In addition, the court squarely addressed and “reject[ed] the State’s argument regarding concurrent jurisdiction.” Pet.App.4a. As this Court has explained, “[t]here can be no question as to the proper presentation of a federal claim when the highest state court passes on it.” Raley v. Ohio, 360 U.S. 423, 436-437 (1959); see Orr v. Orr, 440 U.S. 268, 274-275 (1979).

* * * * *

The petition for a writ of certiorari in Oklahoma v. Castro-Huerta, No. 21-429, should be granted, and the petition in this case should be held pending a decision there and then disposed of as appropriate. In the alternative, the petition for a writ of certiorari in this case should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
