RE: Grand River Enterprises Six Nations, Ltd. v. Mark Boughton - No. 21-279

Dear Mr. Harris:

I represent the Defendant-Respondent, Connecticut Commissioner of Revenue Services, Mark Boughton, in the above-captioned case. Pursuant to Rule 30.4 of the Rules of the United States Supreme Court, Respondent hereby requests that the time within which to oppose the petition for certiorari be extended sixty (60) days, up to and including November 23, 2021. The petition for certiorari in the above-captioned case was filed on August 23, 2021 and was docketed on August 25, 2021. Respondent's brief in opposition is now due, unless extended, on September 24, 2021. Counsel for the Petitioner, Kelli J. Keegan, does not object to this request for a sixty (60) day extension.

This request is necessitated by the fact that counsel for Respondent is scheduled to be away for several days during September. Additional time is also required because counsel and support staff are currently coordinating their work remotely due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The requested extension will allow adequate time for the brief to be reviewed within our office and to resolve any unexpected difficulties that may arise in the preparation, revision, and submission of the brief.

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph J. Chambers
Assistant Attorney General
Counsel of Record
