In the Supreme Court of the United States

STATE OF OKLAHOMA,

Petitioner,

v.

DAKOTA JAMES ALLEYN SHRIVER,

Respondent.

On Petition for a Writ of Certiorari to the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals

REPLY BRIEF FOR THE PETITIONER

1. The petition in this case presents a question of overriding importance to the State of Oklahoma: whether McGirt v. Oklahoma, 140 S.Ct. 2452 (2020), should be overruled. This question is identical to one of the questions raised in Oklahoma v. Castro-Huerta, No. 21-429. The petition in this case expressly incorporated the arguments for granting certiorari in Castro-Huerta and requested that the Court hold this case pending resolution of the petition there.

2. On November 24, respondent filed his brief in opposition (“Opp.”), which sets forth his arguments against review on the question presented and references the brief in opposition filed by counsel in Castro-Huerta, No. 21-274. See Opp.4-10. The brief in opposition in this case responds primarily to the arguments made in the petition in Castro-Huerta. In addition, the Cherokee Nation filed an amicus brief in support of respondent here, setting forth additional arguments against review of the question whether McGirt should be overruled, responding to arguments in the petition in Castro-Huerta. See Cherokee Br.3-23.

3. The brief in opposition in Castro-Huerta was filed on November 15. Additional amicus briefs in support of the respondent have been filed in that case, including from the Muscogee (Creek) Nation, Chickasaw Nation, Choctaw Nation, and Cherokee Nation. To ensure an orderly presentation of the arguments to the Court, the State is setting forth its full responses to the brief in opposition and the amicus brief of the Cherokee Nation in this case, as well as the additional briefs filed in other cases, in the reply brief in Castro-Huerta filed today. The State respectfully requests that the Court refer to that brief when considering the petition here.

* * * * *

The petition for a writ of certiorari in Oklahoma v. Castro-Huerta, No. 21-429, should be granted, and the petition in this case should be held pending a decision there and then disposed of as appropriate. In the alternative, the petition for a writ of certiorari in this case should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN M. O'CONNOR
