L.T. No.: 2006 CF 3199 A

Robert R. Taylor

v.

State of Florida

Appellant / Petitioner(s),

Appellee / Respondent(s)

BY ORDER OF THE COURT:

Article I, section 16(b)(10)b of the Florida Constitution provides that all state-level appeals and collateral attacks on any judgment must be complete within two years from the date of appeal in non-capital cases or within five years from the date of appeal in capital cases unless a court enters an order with specific findings as to why the court was unable to comply and the circumstances causing the delay. This case could not be decided within five years from the date of the first notice of appeal because the postconviction appeal was filed after the five-year time period had already passed. The instant notice of appeal was filed in the lower tribunal on September 20, 2019, and this Court's mandate issued on October 30, 2020.

This order is for reporting purposes only. It does not affect the decision in this case or the date of the mandate if one has issued, and it has no effect on related proceedings in the lower tribunal or in federal court.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing is (a true copy of) the original court order.

Hon. Ashley Moody, AG
