#12. I currently volunteer as an administrator in my husband's business and receive an allowance out of his pay which covers my expenses. We are in the slow season and had to transfer from business savings to pay bills this month. The business has been experiencing some financial hardship due to reduced client travel due to the pandemic and raised expenses such as fuel costs. In terms of assets, a company vehicle (2019 Escalade) is not owned outright but financed, so it was not listed. And the business savings is not personal funds and used for vehicle maintenance, taxes, expenses, etc. so was not listed.
