TO THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT AND/OR UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

JUSTICE CLEARENCE THOMAS:

COMES NOW, Juan Luis Leonor, petitioner, pro se, and pursuant to S.Ct. Rule 33.1(d) and S.Ct. Rule 22, hereby respectfully requests for leave for permission to file a writ of habeas corpus in excess of the page limit. Petitioner offers good cause for such a request:

1. My intent is to file before the Court a writ of Habeas Corpus Petition invoking the Court's discretionary powers under S.Ct. Rule 20. 4(a).
2. The page limitation allowed by the Supreme Court Rules is 40 pages. See S.Ct. Rule 33.2.(b).
3. I am acting pro se, without the assistance of an attorney or anyone instructed in the law.
4. My native and first language is Spanish.
5. I am incarcerated, and during my incarceration I have learned how to write and read the English Language, but I still struggle with composition and grammar, and with well and fair thought arguments.

6. The S.Ct. Rule 20. 4(a), requires of me to address the requirements of 28 U.S.C. 2241 and 2242, that is, "reasons for not making application to the district court of the district in which" I am held, see S.Ct. Rule 20. 4(a) (original quotations), the showing of "exceptional circumstances" to justify the granting of a writ of habeas corpus, and why "adequate relief cannot be obtained in any other form of from any other court." Id.

7. In addition, S.Ct. Rule 20.2, requires that "[a]ll contentions in support of the petition shall be included in the petition." Id.

8. Within my petition, I am addressing each and every requirement under S.Ct. Rule 20.

9. I have read and re-read many times my arguments and allegations within my petition of a writ of habeas corpus, and I cannot find a better and concise way to fully address the Court beyond the 40 page limitation, which is partly related to the complexity of the issues included within my petition.

10. The page count of my petition for a writ of habeas corpus is, 54 pages. Thus, the leave of the Court requested is for permission to file my petition with 14 additional pages.

THEREFORE, the Petitioner respectfully requests that permission to file his petition for a writ of habeas corpus with 14 pages in excess of the page limit be granted.

Respectfully submitted on this 23rd day of June, 2021, by,
