JEANETTE S.R. LIPINSKI,
Plaintiff-Appellant,

Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division.

No. 16 C 7153

YOLANDA CASTANEDA, et al.,
Defendants-Appellees.

Judge.

ORDER

In this suit alleging an unreasonable arrest, Jeanette Lipinski lost at summary judgment because she failed to comply with a local rule, of which she had notice, requiring her to cite evidence supporting her claim. After the defendants moved for summary judgment, the district court applied that rule to deem their facts admitted, and based on those admissions it entered summary judgment. Because district courts may reasonably require that even pro se litigants strictly comply with local rules, the district court did not abuse its discretion, and therefore we affirm.

Lipinski was charged in 2014 with poisoning her neighbors' dog. According to the defendants, the neighbors called the police when they smelled bleach and saw dead grass in their yard after their dog had become sick. The two police officers who responded observed the dead grass and an "overwhelming" bleach smell. The neighbors told the officers that they suspected that Lipinski had poured bleach in their yard and that it had sickened their dog, who now had whitened paws. Lipinski admitted to an officer that she had poured bleach along the fence between her yard and the neighbors'. The officer then arrested her. She was later charged with knowingly poisoning a domestic animal, see 510 ILCS 70/6 (2002), but acquitted after a trial.

After her acquittal, Lipinski brought this suit alleging two claims that she lost at summary judgment for lack of proof. The first count, under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against the officers, alleges that they arrested her in violation of the Fourth Amendment; the second count is a state-law claim for malicious prosecution against the officers and the neighbors. (The district court dismissed Lipinski's other claims, and she does not contest those dismissals.) The defendants moved for summary judgment and filed a joint statement of material facts. Lipinski's response to that statement disputed several facts, but she cited no supporting evidence and did not offer facts of her own to show a genuine dispute. Because the defendants had supported their facts, which refuted liability, with admissible evidence and Lipinski offered no evidence to contest those facts, the court deemed each of the defendants' facts admitted under Local Rule 56.1. See N.D. Ill. L.R. 56.1(b)(3)(B) (non-movant's response "shall contain ... specific references" to the record). The court also noted that, by not filing a memorandum of law opposing summary judgment, Lipinski had waived opposition. Based on the admitted facts, the court granted summary judgment for the defendants.

Within the time to do so, Lipinski moved for reconsideration, advancing two arguments. First, she contended that she had tried to file a brief opposing summary judgment, but the clerk's office never docketed it. Second, she continued to dispute several of the defendants' stated facts. The court denied the motion because Lipinski had not shown "excusable neglect" under Rule 60(b) for failing to file a memorandum. In the court's view, because she electronically filed her documents, she needed to check that her filings were properly docketed, and neglecting to do so was not "excusable." In any event, the court continued, it rejected Lipinski's purported factual disputes for the same reason—her noncompliance with the local rule requiring her to cite evidence—that it gave in its summary-judgment ruling.

No. 19-3395

Lipinski raises only one argument on appeal: the district court abused its discretion when it applied Local Rule 56.1 to deem admitted the defendants' version of the facts. She points to her pro se status, asserts that by disputing the defendants' statement of facts under penalty of perjury she acted in good faith, and concludes that the court should have given her a chance to cure her defective response. Essentially, she argues that the district court erred by applying its local rule strictly. But "we have repeatedly held that district judges may strictly enforce local summary-judgment rules." McCurry v. Kenico Logistics Servs., LLC, 942 F.3d 783, 787 (7th Cir. 2019). And "pro se litigants are not excused from compliance with procedural rules." Pearle Vision, Inc. v. Remm, 541 F.3d 751, 758 (7th Cir. 2008). In light of the "substantial deference" we give to a judge's enforcement of local summary-judgment rules, McCurry, 942 F.3d at 787 n.2, Lipinski has given us no adequate reason to conclude that the district court abused its broad discretion.

Furthermore, even if ignorance of the local rule might lead a district court in its discretion to excuse noncompliance, Lipinski was not ignorant. She does not dispute that she had twice received instructions of her obligations under the local rule and the consequences for failing to meet them. Both the neighbors and the officers served her the required notices explaining that when a pro se litigant opposes a motion for summary judgment, the party must cite evidence disputing the defendants' facts, and that failure to do so could lead the court to deem those facts admitted. See N.D. Ill. L.R. 56.2 (providing text for notice that must be served on pro se litigants opposing summary judgment motion); Timms v. Frank, 953 F.2d 281, 285 (7th Cir. 1992) (requiring that pro se litigants opposing summary-judgment motion receive notice with consequences of inadequate response). Thus for this reason as well, the district court permissibly enforced Local Rule 56.1 after Lipinski had received notice of its requirements. See Outlaw v. Newkirk, 259 F.3d 833, 841–42 (7th Cir. 2001).

v.) Hon. Jorge L. Alonso

LT. BONNER, and) OFFICER ANDRIELLE CAP,) Defendants.)

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

After plaintiff Jeanette S.R. Lipinski ("Lipinski") was arrested for and acquitted of poisoning her neighbors' dog, she sued a long list of defendants. Plaintiff has two remaining claims. In Count IV, against defendant Lt. Bonner and Officer Andrielle Cap ("Officer Cap"), plaintiff seeks relief under § 1983 for false arrest. In Count III, plaintiff asserts a claim for malicious prosecution against defendants Volanda Castaneda, Alonso Castaneda, Lt. Bonner and Officer Cap. For the reasons set forth below, defendants' motions for summary judgment are granted.

I. BACKGROUND

Local Rule 56.1 outlines the requirements for the introduction of facts parties would like considered in connection with a motion for summary judgment. The Court enforces Local Rule 56.1 strictly. Where one party supports a fact with admissible evidence and the other party fails to controvert the fact with citation to admissible evidence, the Court deems the fact admitted.

See Curtis v. Costco Wholesale Corp., 807 F.3d 215, 218-19 (7th Cir. 2015); Ammons v.

Aramark Uniform Servs., Inc., 368 F.3d 809, 817-18 (7th Cir. 2004). This does not, however, absolve the party putting forth the fact of the duty to support the fact with admissible evidence. See Kreton v. Morningstar, Inc., 667 F.3d 877, 880 (7th Cir. 2012). The Court does not consider any facts that parties failed to include in their statements of fact, because to do so would rob the other party of the opportunity to show that the fact is disputed.

In this case, defendants put forth a joint statement of facts. Plaintiff has filed a response, in which plaintiff agrees that many of the facts are undisputed. Plaintiff states that other facts are disputed, but she does not cite any evidence to support her assertions that such facts are disputed. Thus, the Court has deemed admitted those facts that defendants have supported with admissible evidence, because plaintiff failed to controvert those facts with citation to evidence. The following facts are undisputed unless otherwise noted.

In July 2014, plaintiff and the Castanedas were next-door neighbors. Their backyards were separated by a fence.

On the afternoon of July 14, 2014, Yolanda Castaneda was in her backyard when she noticed an area of dead grass along her side of the fence that separated her yard from plaintiff's. She also noticed that the area smelled like bleach. A few days before, the Castanedas' dog had been vomiting, and, after Yolanda Castaneda noticed the smell of bleach, she also noticed her dog's paw pads were white, rather than black. When her husband, Alonso Castaneda, arrived home, he inspected the backyard and the dog. He, too, observed dead patches of grass, smelled the bleach and noticed the discolored paw pads on the dog. Yolanda Castaneda telephoned 911. She informed the operator that someone had poured bleach in her yard.

Soon, two officers, Lt. Bonner and Officer Cap, arrived at the Castanedas' house. The Castanedas told the officers that bleach had been poured into their yard. The Castanedas also told the officers that they suspected their neighbor, plaintiff, had poured the bleach, because the bleach was along their shared fence line and because plaintiff had expressed her dislike of the Castanedas' dog. The Castanedas told the officers that the dog had been ill and that its paw pads were white. It is undisputed that everything the Castanedas told the officers was true.

The officers proceeded to the Castanedas' backyard to investigate. Lt. Bonner and Officer Cap noticed the dead grass along the fence line, and each also noticed the "overwhelming" smell of bleach.

The officers returned to the Police Station, where Officer Cap began writing an incident report. Lt. Bonner, for his part, telephoned plaintiff and invited her for an interview at the station, where she admitted to having poured bleach along the fence line.

The State of Illinois brought charges against plaintiff for poisoning a domestic animal. Yolanda Castaneda was subpoenaed and testified truthfully. She also tendered to the State's Attorney a bill she had paid for veterinary care, as well as a letter from a veterinarian, who stated the dog had exhibited symptoms of exposure to a chemical. Plaintiff was acquitted and filed this suit.

II. STANDARD ON A MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Summary judgment shall be granted "if the movant shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(a). When considering a motion for summary judgment, the Court must construe the evidence and make all reasonable inferences in favor of the non-moving party. Hutchison v. Fitzgerald Egulp, Inc., 910 F.3d 1016, 1021 (7th Cir. 2018). Summary judgment is appropriate when the non-moving party "fails to make a showing sufficient to establish the existence of an element essential to the party's case and on which that party will bear the burden of proof at trial."

Celotex v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 322, 106 S.Ct. 2548, 91 F.3d 265 (1986). “A genuine issue of material fact arises only if sufficient evidence favoring the nonmoving party exists to permit a jury to return a verdict for that party.” Brunimett v. Sinclair Broadcast Group, Inc., 414 F.3d 686, 692 (7th Cir. 2005).

III. DISCUSSION

The Court notes that while plaintiff filed a response to the statement of facts (without citation to evidence), she did not file a memorandum of law in opposition to defendants’ motions or otherwise cite any legal authority. Thus, any arguments she might have made are waived. See Little v. Mitsubishi Motors North Amer., Inc., 261 Fed. Appx. 901, 903 (7th Cir. 2008) (failure “to present facts or develop any legal arguments” in response to motion for summary judgment constituted abandonment of claims); see also Burton v. Board of Regents of the Univ. of Ill., 851 F.3d 690, 695 (7th Cir. 2017) (“[I]t is a well-setled rule that a party opposing a summary judgment motion must inform the trial judge of the reasons, legal or factual, why summary judgment should not be entered. If the [nonmoving party] does not do so, and loses the motion, it cannot raise such reasons on appeal.”) (citations omitted).

A. Plaintiff’s claims against the officers

Against Lt. Bonner and Officer Cap, plaintiff asserts a claim for false arrest under § 1983 and a claim for malicious prosecution. As defendants point out, both claims fall for the same reason: defendants had probable cause to arrest plaintiff.¹

“To prevail on a false-arrest claim under § 1983, a plaintiff must show that there was no probable cause for his arrest.” Keita v. City of Chi., 830 F.3d 494, 497 (7th Cir. 2016). Probable cause, likewise, defeats a claim for malicious prosecution. Martin v. Martinez, 934 F.3d 594, ____, 2019 WL 377361 at *3 (7th Cir. 2019) (“[T]he existence of probable cause for the arrest would also bar recovery on a theory of malicious prosecution.”); Coleman v. City of Peoria, 925 F.3d 336, 350 (7th Cir. 2019) (“Although [false arrest] is a federal constitutional claim and [malicious prosecution] is a state tort, the existence of probable cause defeats both.”).

“Probable cause exists where the police officer is aware of facts and circumstances ‘sufficient to warrant a prudent man in believing that the petitioner had committed or was committing an offense.’” Coleman, 925 F.3d at 350 (quoting Beck v. Ohio, 379 U.S. 89, 91 (1964)). The crime with which plaintiff was charged was poisoning a domestic animal. Illinois law makes it a crime to “knowingly poison or cause to be poisoned any dog or other domestic animal.” 510 ILCS 70/6. Lt. Bonner and Officer Cap had probable cause to think plaintiff had caused the Castanedas’ dog to be poisoned. These defendants were told by the Castanedas: (1) that someone had poured bleach in their backyard; (2) that the bleach had affected their dog in that his paw pads had become white and he had vomited; and (3) that they suspected the culprit was their neighbor, who had expressed her dislike of their dog and with whom they shared the fence line along which the bleach had been poured. The officers then investigated the backyard and witnessed both the dead grass along the fence line and the smell of bleach. If that were not enough, when Lt. Bonner interviewed plaintiff, she told him she had poured bleach along the fence line. Lt. Bonner and Officer Cap had probable cause, as a matter of law.

Thus, Lt. Bonner and Officer Cap are entitled to judgment as a matter of law on Counts III and IV. Their motion for summary judgment is granted, and they are granted summary judgment on Counts III and IV.

B. Plaintiff's claim against the Castanedas

Plaintiff also brings Count III for malicious prosecution against the Castanedas.

As the Illinois Supreme Court has explained repeatedly, "suits for malicious prosecution are not favored in the law." Beaman v. Freymeyer, ___ N.E.3d ___, 2019 IL 123654 at ¶ 24 (Ill. 2019) (citing Joiner v. Benton Community Bank, 82 Ill.2d 40, 44 (Ill. 1980); Schwartz v. Schwartz, 366 Ill. 247, 250 (Ill. 1937); Shedd v. Patterson, 302 Ill. 355, 359-60 (Ill. 1922)); see also Logan v. Caterpillar, Inc., 246 F.3d 912, 921 (7th Cir. 2001) ("At the outset, we note that malicious prosecution suits are disfavored by law because of the potential deterrent effect on the reporting of crime."). The reason the Illinois Supreme Court disfavors malicious prosecution is that public policy "savors the exposure of crime, and the cooperation of citizens possessing knowledge thereof is essential to effective implementation of that policy." Id.

To prevail on this claim, plaintiff must establish: "(1) the commencement or continuation of an original criminal or civil judicial proceeding by the defendant; (2) the termination of the proceeding in favor of the plaintiff; (3) the absence of probable cause for such proceeding; (4) the presence of malice; and (5) damages." Johnson v. Saville, 575 F.3d 656, 659 (7th Cir. 2009). In Illinois, "criminal proceedings are commenced by the filing of a complaint, an indictment, or an information." Logan, 246 F.3d at 922. "Thus, a private citizen does not commence a criminal action merely by reporting information to the police—even if the information later turns out to be incorrect." Logan, 246 F.3d at 922. Instead, a private citizen commences or continues a prosecution "only if the plaintiff can demonstrate that the defendant (1) instituted the proceedings against the plaintiff; (2) knowingly made false statements to the police; or (3) requested, directed, or pressured the officer into swearing out the complaint for the plaintiff's arrest." Logan, 246 F.3d at 922.

Here, plaintiff has put forth no evidence that the Castanedas filed a complaint against plaintiff or otherwise pressured the police or prosecutor to pursue criminal charges against plaintiff. In addition, it is undisputed that the Castanedas gave only truthful information to the police. In any case, as explained above, plaintiff's arrest was supported by probable cause.

Accordingly, the Castanedas are entitled to judgment as a matter of law on Count III. Their motion for summary judgment is granted, and they are granted summary judgment as to Count III.

C. Castanedas' remaining claims

Defendants Yolanda Castaneda and Alonso Castaneda filed against plaintiff two counterclaims for negligence (Counterclaim I) and trespass (Counterclaim II). The Castanedas have not moved for summary judgment on those claims. Because the Court has resolved all of the federal claims over which it has original jurisdiction, the Court exercises its discretion to dismiss without prejudice the Castanedas' counterclaims, which they may pursue in state court, if they choose. AT&T Service Co. v. BP Products North Amer., Inc., 599 F.3d 720, 727 (7th Cir. 2010) ("When all federal claims in a suit in federal court are dismissed before trial, the presumption is that the court will relinquish federal jurisdiction over any supplemental state-law claims, which the plaintiff can then prosecute in state court.") (internal citations omitted).

Accordingly, the counterclaims are dismissed without prejudice.

IV. CONCLUSION

For all of these reasons, the Court grants the Castanedas' motion [130] for summary judgment. Yolanda Castaneda and Alonso Castaneda are granted summary judgment on Count III. The Court also grants the motion [134] for summary judgment filed by Lt. Bonner and Officer Cap. Lt. Bonner and Officer Cap are granted summary judgment on Counts III and IV.

The Court relinquishes jurisdiction over the Castanedas' counterclaims and dismisses Counterclaims I and II without prejudice. Civil case terminated.

SO ORDERED.

ORDER

Plaintiff's motion [163] for leave to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal is granted.

STATEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 24 of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, a "party who was permitted to proceed in forma pauperis in the district-court action . . . may proceed on appeal in forma pauperis without further authorization, unless" the district court "certifies that the appeal is not taken in good faith or finds that the party is not otherwise entitled to proceed in forma pauperis." Fed R. App. P. 24(a)(3).

In this case, plaintiff was granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis in the district-court action [Docket 6]. This Court has not certified (and does not intend to) that the appeal is not taken in good faith. Nothing in plaintiff's affidavit suggests she is not otherwise entitled to proceed in forma pauperis. Accordingly, plaintiff's motion to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal is granted.

ORDER

Plaintiff's motion [170] for waiver of fees for transcripts on appeal is denied without prejudice.

STATEMENT

Pursuant to statute, "Fees for transcripts furnished in other proceedings to persons permitted to appeal in forma pauperis shall also be paid by the United States if the trial judge or a circuit judge certifies that the appeal is not frivolous (but presents a substantial question)." 28 U.S.C. § 753(l). "An appeal raises a 'substantial question' if it presents 'a 'close' question or one that very well could be decided the other way.'" United States v. Eaken, 995 F.2d 740, 741 (7th Cir. 1993) (quoting United States v. Shaffner, 791 F.2d 586, 589 (7th Cir. 1986)). Courts also consider "whether the requesting party has demonstrated a particular need for the requested transcripts," Westbrook v. Boy Scouts of Am., Case No. 10 C 4161, 2013 WL 2936488 at *4 (N.D. Ill. June 13, 2014).

Plaintiff asks that transcript fees be waived, which is to say she asks that the United States pay for her transcripts. The request is denied without prejudice for two primary reasons. First, plaintiff does not say which transcripts she is requesting and does not say why the transcripts are necessary for her appeal. She appears to be appealing the Court's decision to grant summary judgment in favor of defendants, but the Court did not hold a hearing on that motion. Thus, it is not obvious what transcripts plaintiff believes are necessary for her appeal. Next, plaintiff does not explain why her appeal presents a substantial question.

Accordingly, the Court denies without prejudice plaintiff's motion for waiver of fees for transcripts on appeal.

ORDER

Plaintiff's motion [178] for appointment of counsel is denied.

STATEMENT

On September 13, 2019, the Court entered judgment in this case against plaintiff and in favor of defendants. On December 3, 2019, plaintiff filed a notice of appeal.

Plaintiff has now filed with this Court a motion for appointment of counsel, presumably to represent her on appeal. Ordinarily, the filing of a notice of appeal divests a district court of jurisdiction. Ameritech Corp. v. International Bhd. of Team Workers, Local 21, 543 F.3d 414, 418 (7th Cir. 2008) ("This rule conserves judicial resources by preventing overlapping and potentially inconsistent decisions; whipsawing litigants between two courts is just as inconvenient for courts as it is for parties"). Thus, the Court lacks jurisdiction over plaintiff's motion.

In any case, plaintiff has already asked the Court of Appeals for appointment of counsel, and the Court of Appeals has denied the motion. This Court will not second-guess that decision.

Accordingly, the motion is denied.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO RECONSIDER OR FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGEMENT

Now comes Plaintiff Jeanette Lipinski Pro Se (Lipinski) moves pursuant to FRCP 59 for the Court to Reconsider its September 13, 2019 memorandum opinion and September 13, 2019 judgement and in the alternative moves that the Court grant her relief from that order and judgement pursuant to FRCP 60 (b)(1) based upon mistake, inadvertence and excusable neglect or in the alternative pursuant to FRCP 60 (b)(6) based upon reasons that justifies relief.

There were manifest errors of law and fact.

The Veterinarian report dated 7/15/14 was previously submitted to the Court said nothing about poisoning. A copy is attached hereto as Exhibit A-3 Pgs.

Judicial notice can be taken of certain scientific facts. See F.R. Evidence 201.

Lipinski had attempted to file a response to the Castanedas' et al, motion for summary judgement, the Castanedas' supporting memorandum dvm, and joint statement of material facts. A copy is attached hereto as Exhibit A-12 Pgs dated 10/30/18. This Response was never docketed by the clerk nor presumably read by the Court. On 10/31/18 docket #140, Response by Plaintiff Jeanette S.R. Lipinski to motion for summary judgement #130, motion for summary judgement #134 (Lipinski, Jeanette) (Entered:10/31/18); but not the Plaintiff's RESPONSE to Castanedas ET AL, Motion For Summary Judgement. Both documents were submitted together.

The situation before the court also constitutes mistake, inadvertence and excusable neglect or other reason justifying relief under FRCP 60(b).

On 10/1/18 usdc_ecf_ilnd@ilnd.uscourts.gov, sends Ten electronic emails from the Defendants to Plaintiff. That amount of information is overwhelming for Pro Se Plaintiff, usdc_ecf_ilnd@ilnd.uscourts.gov, and the Highbler Pro Se help desk. Service appointments are only every two weeks for 45 minutes, and only if an appointment is available, which is often unavailable due not enough attorney volunteers. The Highbler Pro Se Help desk 45 minute limit availability to service Pro Se clients is not adequate enough time to service large amounts of information in one visit. They are very limited to their attorney services to the many Pro Se clients that need their services to meet their needs. The Federal Court system fails to help Pro Se clients cases properly and adequately overwhelming their employees, clients, and judges with large work loads. Which is inhumane to accomplish their tasks properly and accurately. This is also a well known unethical attorney misconduct maneuver to overload work to the clients of Pro Se cases who are not lawyers. Refusing to represent clients professionally for political, religious, nationality, or other unethical motives.. Reference: Case 1:07-cv-00739 Document Durham County, NC prosecutor, Mike Nifong, gained national infamy for a pattern of attorney misconduct; 2006 Duke University lacrosse team scandal.

ERRORS

The decision on 9/13/19 was in error primary because it stated that the Defendant's dog was allegedly poisoned, when in fact it was not, and Plaintiff admitted she poured full strength bleach into the yard of Defendants when in fact she did not-her only admission was a very small diluted solution outside by Plaintiff's garage in alley put on concrete cleaning unhealthy dog urine odor when she was doing her yearly garage maintenance and removing her vehicle oil from her garage floor.

The veterinary letter and bill was never entered into Markham Court as evidence of poisoning of the dog. It was only provided to this honorable court as evidence of no poisoning of Deft's dog, that in case. Defendants simply made false allegations, and repeated them to the police and then had Plaintiff Jeanette Lipinski falsely arrested. The Castanedas and BV police made no small claims on how much they hated their neighbor Plaintiff. When a Handicap sign was put in front of Plaintiff's house for her and her mother, Yolanda Castaneda angrily yelled at Plaintiff in Spanish who could not understand her nor hear her very well. The Castanedas resented they had to move one of their three cars, non-working white car parked in front of their house into their brand new two car garage. Injured Plaintiff with a broken right heel and broken left wrist shoveled a path to the street to get her mother on her own street walkway to be picked up to go the doctor, safely in the Arctic Fall-Spring 2013-2014 for her second wrist surgery. Plaintiff put a friendly note on Deft. Alonso's car to please be considerate to move his car that was in front of Plaintiff's walkway so her elderly mother can get to the doctor. She can't walk thru the deep snow. Deft. Alonso did not comply even after the Handicap sign was put up and the police also ignored Deft. violating Plaintiff's Handicap sign. A BV police officer went to school with Deft. Yolanda Castaneda and was her friend. It is believed that Plaintiff's false arrest was a conspiracy to hurt Plaintiff JEANETTE LIPINSKI. Psalm 142:3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me. Then You knew my path. In the way in which I walk. They have secretly set a snare for me. With all due respect to the court, there is complete absence of any logical analysis of the "Castaneda Evidence" or "facts." Many points are just plain inconceivable. 1) The allegation that bleach poured on a lawn will turn black dog paws white. Bleach does not turn dark skin white. Paws and skin contain a pigment melanin which is not affected by bleach. Doing laundry is not the same as putting bleach on dark or black skin. African Americans have known for years you cannot bleach black skin. 2) As brought up by this court before. Defendants again make outrageous claims not supported by any science that bleach creates white dry paws on their dog, as pointed out in Vets letter. Dog urine is acidic and kills grass Yellow. 3) Bleach if used for killing weeds in grass takes one to three days to turn brown, not yellow, which is the color of their dog urine in their grass.

² Hydroquinone is a popular "skin bleaching product." It is not chlorine bleach and what it does is decrease production of melanin in human skin. Chlorine bleach works in a completely different fashion by actually destroying dyes, grease and dirt molecules on contact. Therefore it is an outrageous lie on the part of Defendants that the black paw pads of their dog suddenly turned white. <https://www.healthline.com/search?q=Hydroquinone>. They should be sanctioned for making outrageous and impossible lies.

³ How to kill grass with bleach: homeguides.sfgate.com. #3 Wait one to three days and when the grass turns BROWN and dry, pull it up to remove. It doesn't turn yellow.

Clearly no dog/animal was poisoned, the police either knew or should have known these facts and that the Castanedas were clearly lying about the entire matter to hurt the Plaintiff.

Plaintiff made it clear that Deft. Yolanda Castaneda took her dog, a large yellow Labrador retriever for a walk the very next morning at 5a, and at the criminal trial Plaintiff Jeanette told the judge about the Defendant walking her dog the very next day and the criminal case was dismissed because the Castanedas did not produce the Veterinary letter and bill, it was all hear-say.

While the court argues that Plaintiff failed to file a Response including argument on the facts and Legal Argument, she did in fact prepare a Response, and filed it, but it got lost in the system. It is attached hereto as Exhibit B-12 Pgs dated 10/30/2018.

This is the second time a error has happened by the court system. The Plaintiff brought to your Honor's Alonso's attention of the missing Deft. ANDRIELLE CAP name from the Docket. Your Honor searched his computer and saw it was missing, and it was returned to the Docket. This newly discovered evidence of error, missing Response dated 10/30/18 by the Plaintiff was not notice until your Honorable judges recent order.

Plaintiff has repeatedly moved this honorable court to appoint her counsel in this case to help her with her case because she is elderly, indigent, disabled, and under great distress. She is now requesting that this court allow her to file this document at this time. Plaintiff hopes and believes this error was inadvertent and unintentional.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

Plaintiff reiterates that Defendants are clearly not entitled to Summary Judgment as a matter of law against any of the Defendants. The Castanedas clearly made false statements of facts, and the police repeated these false statement of facts of bleaching dark dog skin pads white with bleach. It is their dog urin that killed the grass yellow. The court, with all due respect, stated that Plaintiff Jeanette hated dogs; she does not hate dogs and is very friendly with them and concerned about animals; the Castanedas should walk their dog around the block every day and not just turn it out for minutes/hours in their small yard by itself without food and water. Plaintiff raised her Pedigree Toy Poodles for seventeen years with three litters. She loves dogs.

The Castanedas never tendered any vet letter or bill to the state at the criminal trial, nor did they show any evidence the dog was sick. Everything was hear-say by them and police. Why didn't the police check the Castaneda's outside yard security cameras facing the backyard and alley. In fact, Plaintiff Jeanette has video tape footage on her outside security cameras of the very next day at 5a showing Yolanda Casinnesas happily walking her dog for the first time ever seen, with the dog happily walking with her and was perfectly fine. And Plaintiff shows no crime by her on her backyard security camera.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

Summary judgment is an extremely drastic remedy. 3 Barron & Holtzoff, Federal Practice and Procedure § 1231 (Wright ed.), quoted in Hoffman v. Rabbit Bros. Trading Co., 203 F.2d 636, 637 n. 1 (9th Cir. 1953). Accordingly, summary judgment should be rendered only 'if the pleadings, depositions, answers to the interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.' Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(e). See also Consolidated Electric Co. v. United States, 355 F.2d 437 (9th Cir. 1966); A. Chemey Disposal Co. v. CHICAGO & ST. B. REFUSE DIS. ASS'N, 484 F.2d 751 (7th Cir., 1973).

A genuine dispute of material fact exists "if the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party." Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248, 106 S.Ct. 2505, 91 L.Ed.2d 202 (1986). We "consider all of the evidence in the record in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, and we draw all reasonable inferences from that evidence in favor of the party opposing summary judgment." Feliberty v. Kemper Corp., 98 F.3d 274, 276-77 (7th Cir. 1996); Skiba v. Ill. Cent. R.R. Co., 884 F.3d 708 (7th Cir., 2018).

In this case, Defendants have not shown that Summary Judgment is warranted. The Castanedas alleged a number of obvious untrue statements and facts which were then repeated by the police. It simply is well known, or the Defendants should have known that, 1.) bleach does not turn black paws white, 2.) their dog urine killed the grass yellow. The police repeated there untrue statements and facts and treated Plaintiff rudely and in a hostile manner. Lies should never substitute for "probable cause" Plaintiff Jennette never said she hated or even disliked their dog; in fact she was very concerned that the dog was never walked by the Castanedas and all they did was let the dog out into their backyard for minutes/hours unattended with no food or water outside. She believed that the dog deserved a daily walk for at least 15 minutes around the block. She was also, as a Christian minister, perfectly willing to clean up the dog urine and feces of her neighbors and other neighbors. There is no evidence she ever complained about that. She was loving her neighbors. Matthew 22: King James Version (KJV) 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law? 37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. 38 This is the first and great commandment.39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, Exodus 20:16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

FIRST AMENDMENT

The freedom of religion is a cherished liberty protected by the First Amendment.

The Supreme Court noted, in Lee v. Wiseman, that the First Amendment's two religion clauses "mean that religious beliefs and religious expression are too precious to be either proscribed or proscribed by the State."

To honorable Judge Alonso from Plaintiff Minister Jeanette Lipinski, It is her and God's decision to bring the Defendants to proper Justice in this earthly court. So that when they stand in His Heavenly Court on their Judgement day; that in this case, those who have sinned will stand before him justified and that the sin will not be made bigger before Him than a wrong judgement decision on earth. For He will rightly and justly Judge the Defendants and punish, either greater or lesser based on this courts earthly decision. She Prays in the words on the court room wall, IN GOD WE TRUST, To do the right judgement in God's eye's and mind, Amen. Proverbs 19:20-21 KJV Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end. There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the Lord, that shall stand.

For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff Jeanette Lipinski respectfully requests reconsideration of the Court's September 13, 2019 order, and the case set for trial.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

JEANETTE LIPINSKI Plaintiff v. YOLANDA CASTANEDA, an individual; ALONSO CASTANEDA, an individual; L.T. BONNER #78, in his individual and officer capacity; OFFICER ANDRIELLE CAP #77; in her individual and officer capacity; and Susan E. Cox VILLAGE OF BURNHAM, a municipal corporation	No. 16 CV 7153 Hon. Jorge L. Alonso Magistrate Hon. Susan Cox JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

RESPONSE TO CASTENADA'S ET AL. MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

This is in response to "The Castenada's Motion for Summary Judgment Against Lipinski" doct # 130 filed on 10/1/18, and the "Castenedas' Memorandum In Support of their Motion for Summary Judgment against Lipinski" doct #133 filed 10/1/18 and "Defendants' Joint Statement of Material Facts Entitling Them to Summary Judgment Against Lipinski", Doct No. 132 filed 10/1/18. At the outset it is somewhat confusing that the Castanedas filed a Motion for Summary Judgment against Lipinski, and submitted a Memorandum of Law in Support of the Motion, but the Statement of Material fact is filed by all the defendants, the Castanedas, and Officers Cap and Bonner. Nonetheless, the Motion should be denied because there are numerous allegations of material fact which are disputed, including the Castaneda's assertions that Plaintiff Jeanette Lipinski tried to poison their dog, but in reality she was trying to clean the alley of dog urine smell, and also whether the Castanedas lied to the police maliciously and told them the dog had died, and whether the Officers Bonner and Cap changed police records from "the dog had died" and removed that from their records. These and other claims should be set for a jury trial on the merits.

A. Response to Motion for Summary Judgment (Doc #133)

With respect to the Motion for Summary Judgment, the Castanedas argue 1) that there is no dispute of any material fact and that in doc. #52, the court dismissed all of Plaintiff Jeanette's claims except for Malicious Prosecution. Plaintiff Jeanette will be filing a Fourth Amended complaint soon to correct those errors. In the meantime the Castanedas argue that Plaintiff Jeanette only suffered $4,500 in damages and summary judgment should be granted for that amount. However, Plaintiff Jeanette also suffered emotional and physical damages in an amount to be determined by a jury trial.

B. The Castanedas' Memorandum of Law in Support of their Motion for Summary Judgment

In their Motion for Summary Judgment, it should be noted at the bottom of page 1, Dfts Castanedas admit that the State was unable to prove their case against Plaintiff Jeanette Lipinski, a Christian minister, ("Plaintiff Jeanette") for poisoning of an animal. (it should be noted that the statute regarding animal poisoning does not include the word "malicious") While the Castanedas assert that they told the police the truth, Plaintiff Jeanette disputes that assertion. The police were told that the dog had to be taken to the vet and that it had died. None of this was true, it turned out.

At the top of page 2 of their Motion for Summary Judgment, the Dfts, Castanedas assert that Plaintiff Jeanette's only claim remaining is for Malicious Prosecution and against the Officers for False Arrest. Plaintiff Jeanette disputes that and believes she has claims pending against the Castanedas for Malicious Prosecution, Abuse of Process and Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress. She further believes she has standing a 42 USC 1983 claim for deprivation of rights under color of authority, as well as False Arrest, Malicious Prosecution, Abuse of Process and Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress. Plaintiff Jeanette believes she has plenty of evidence that the Castanedas lied to the police about the condition of her dog, that she deliberately tried to harm a dog (Plaintiff Jeanette is an animal lover) and all she was doing was her civil duty of cleaning the alley way of strong dog urine smells during the summer. She denies she stepped on the Castaneda property, and she further denies she poured pure bleach anywhere. The solution she used was dilute.

With respect to the Castanedas' Argument at the bottom of page 4, Plaintiff Jeanette believes that she will be able to show a jury that 1) the Castanedas commenced and continued a criminal proceeding; 2) it is established by court records that the Criminal charges were terminated in favor of Plaintiff Jeanette and there was no probable cause to support the proceedings; 3) that the hostility shown to Plaintiff Jeanette over a period of time and the fabrications told to the police at the time of the arrest showed malice and 5) Lipinski suffered actual damages, and emotional damages

18 of 27

In an amount to proved at trial, it is not true that Plaintiff Jeanette does not have a shred of evidence that she can prove the essential elements of Malicious Prosecution.

With respect to the Castanedas' Argument at page 3 regarding "legal causation", Plaintiff Lipinski believes she can show a jury that that Defendant Castanedas knowingly made numerous false statements to a police officer that their dog was poisoned and it died, and they suffered vet bills. None of this is true because the dog was seen the very next day, healthy and happy on a walk. In addition, the Castanedas produced no vet records at trial and it is presumed they have none. While people are free to file police reports, the police reports must not be filled with lies and misrepresentations.

With respect to the statement at the top of page 4, it is not true that what the Castanedas said to the police was merely factual reporting; it was more onerous than that, and the police report shows that the Castanedas knew 1) Plaintiff Jeanette had been regularly cleaning the alley (for years?) with dilute bleach; 2) the dog was kept in the yard, away from the bleach solution; and 3) the bleach solution was only applied to the pavement. Again, these appear to be disputed facts which should be heard by jury during trial and must not be dismissed on Summary Judgment.

At the bottom of page 4, the Castanedas assert that they never told the police that the dog had died; Plaintiff Jeanette has an early report (Exhibit A, hereto) that shows the Castanedas told the police the dog had died. Later, it appears, after the filing of this lawsuit, the records were changed.

Plaintiff Lipinski's Response to Castanedas' Motion for Summary Judgment

19 of 27

At the top of page 5, the Castanedas assert that Plaintiff Jeanette testified that she never heard them say their dog had died. However, it is explained later in the deposition that Officer Kus told her later in a conversation that Officer Kus said it had been reported that the dog had died and it was in the police report too. (Depn of Pltf. Jeanette, p 48).

With respect to the allegation that only Plaintiff Jeanette has a copy of her court testimony, she has none and it is not required. The police records she has speak for themselves, Exhibit A hereto.

At the bottom of page 5, Defendants basically admit that Pltf. Jeanette was told by Officer Kus that the Castanedas told the Officer that their dog had died.

With respect to the allegation that the Castanedas made the statement long after the trial, this is apparently not true, since Plaintiff Jeanette has a police report with this information on it from the date of the incident.

Next at the top of page 7, the Defendants appear to make the fairly preposterous claim that the 5/5/16 report is a scrivener's error. It is hard to believe that "The dog later died from ingesting bleach" is some type of error. If the dog had in fact died, this would have been a most salient point of the case. The reality is, everyone agrees the bleach was in the alley, the dog was in the yard. No one walked the dog into the alley.

Next, at the top of page 5, Defendants make the allegation that grass "along the Castanedas' property line and smelled the bleach while observing the area." First, if the grass were dead, that would have likely have been from neighborhood dogs repeatedly urinating on it. If Plaintiff Lipinski within the hour put bleach on the grass, it likely would not be dead within minutes. That would likely take a day or two. In fact, the makers of Chlorox claim it does not kill grass, and most ordinary soil has a good deal of chlorine in it already. <https://www.hunker.com/13406517/will-chlorox-kill-grass>. Chlorox claims you can wash your boat or sidewalk with Chlorox and it will not kill your grass. However, everyone knows, and has observed, that dog pee does kill grass and it makes it difficult or near impossible to grow back in that area. Ureic acid is very damaging to grass and soil.

However, dog urine will kill grass easily. From www.pet-blog.com:

Because dogs are carnivores and eat a high level of protein in their diet, they break the protein down and excrete it as nitrogen in the urine. The result is a killing of the grass from an overload of nitrogen. You will get the same kind of burn if you put a concentrated handful of fertilizer in one spot.

While the police made some sort of an investigation, they never talked to Plaintiff Jeanette about the claim of dog poisoning before arresting her, and it was the Castaneda's numerous lies that appeared to have directly instigated an arrest and then continued many long months of endless court calls for Plaintiff Jeanette until she was eventually acquitted. She was arrested on 7/14/14 and then acquitted on 7/23/15. No where have the Castaneda's shown any vet bills, any vet examination. The entire event, according to the Castaneda's Memorandum of law on page 1 was based on them and the officers "observing an illness" but an illness that apparently never required any vet care or bills.

Accordingly, it would appear that all the defendants worked together to falsely criminally charge Plaintiff Jeanette based on fairly outrageous claims that bleach kills grass, when in fact it does not, while dog urine would not be the cause of dead grass, when everyone knows dog urine kills grass easily.

At the bottom of page 8, Defendants cite Lindsey v. Orland (citation omitted) for the proposition that "there is no liability where the person merely appears as a witness and thereby aids in the prosecution of the charges which he knows to be groundless." But this is not what happened. All of the defendants worked from the beginning to claim a dog had died when it did not, there were no vet bills as proof of illness, just observations of lay people-- the Castanedas and the police, who were not licensed vets, and finally a claim that bleach killed some grass, when it is well known that dog urine can kill grass, while Chlorox claims its product does not kill grass. This would all appear to be issues for the jury.

On page 9, Defendant argues that "probable cause" is a complete defense to malicious prosecution. However, here we have a case, where no one saw Plaintiff Jeanette apply bleach to the alley concrete, there were no direct witnesses, there was an observation of a "sick dog" which was never examined by a vet, there was dead grass allegedly caused by bleach, when in fact bleach does not kill grass, dog urine does. Plaintiff Jeanette explains that she was cleaning the alley of dog urine with a dilute bleach solution, but no one asked her prior to the arrest. There is a definite issue of whether or not the police should be arresting elderly disabled women for merely cleaning an alley with bleach and water. Plaintiff Jeanette in her deposition testified that the water was not enough that day to clean up dark brown smelly urine stains so she resorted to some bleach mixed with water. This is not unreasonable and in no manner shape or form would anyone want the police to arrest good honest citizens for cleaning up yucky stinky dog urine on hot summer days. And it begs the question, what about janitors cleaning up bathrooms with bleach, pool caretakers, etc.? The list is endless of people using bleach to clean up unsanitary messes. There is most assuredly no probable cause for cleaning up anything with bleach, especially when the Castenada dog rarely went for a walk or left the backyard, and the bleach was used in the alley.

On page 10, Defendants want to limit Plaintiff Jeanette's damages to her actual damages because she is disabled. However, Plaintiff is entitled to her emotional damages for depression, anxiety, etc. In addition, it may appear to the jury that there was a high degree of malice and a complete lack of probable cause for arresting a Christian Minister who frequently cleaned her alley of the smell of dog urine and feces, but when on one particularly miserable hot day, she found that water was not enough so she added in some bleach. This does appear to be particularly vindictive and malicious.

On page 11, while Plaintiff Jeanette is disabled, she does work from home selling glow in the dark crosses and stuffed baby Jesus lambs for infants. The arrest and its emotional toll has prevented her from performing these functions to supplement her income.

A Response to Defendants' Statement of Undisputed Facts is also provided herewith.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

summary judgment is an extremely drastic remedy. 3 Barron & Holtzoff, Federal Practice and Procedure § 1231 (Wright ed.), quoted in Hoffman v. Babbitt Bros. Trading Co., 203 F.2d 636, 637 n. 1 (8th Cir. 1953). Accordingly, summary judgment should be rendered only 'if the pleadings, depositions, answers to the interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.' Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(c). See also Consolidated Electric Co. v. United States, 355 F.2d 437 (8th Cir. 1966). A. Cherney Disposal Co. v. CHICAGO & SUB. REFUSE DIS. ASS'N, 484 F.2d 751 (7th Cir., 1973).

A genuine dispute of material fact exists "if the evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party." Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248, 108 S.Ct. 2505, 91 L.Ed.2d 202 (1986). We "consider all of the evidence in the record in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, and we draw all reasonable inferences from that evidence in favor of the party opposing summary judgment." Feliberty v. Kemper Corp., 98 F.3d 274, 276-77 (7th Cir., 1996). Skiba v. Ill. Cent. R.R. Co., 884 F.3d 708 (7th Cir., 2018)

In this case, defendants have not shown that Summary Judgment is warranted. The Castanedas alleged a number of obvious lies which were then repeated by the police. It simply is well known, or the defendants should have known that 1) bleach does not turn black paws white; and 2) that bleach kills grass, rather dog urine kills grass. The police repeated lies and treated Plaintiff rudely and in a hostile manner. Lies should never substitute for "probable cause" Plaintiff Jeanette never said she hated or even disliked the dog; In fact she was very concerned that the dog was never walked by the Castanedas and all they did was turn the dog out into their backyard for hours unattended. And when they did walk the dog it was only behind their garage in the alley. She believed that the dog deserved a daily walk for at least 15 minutes around the block. She was also, as a Christian minister, perfectly willing to clean up the dog urine and feces of her neighbors and other neighbors. There is no evidence she ever complained about that.

Conclusion

Plaintiff Lipinski is entitled to her jury trial on the causes of action remaining, and she will be amending her complaint to add in facts to support her Abuse of Process claim and a second false arrest. Summary Judgment should be denied because Defendants are not entitled to relief as a matter of law and there are many disputed facts entitling Plaintiff to a jury trial on the issues of liability presented in her Complaint.

JEANETTE S.R. LIPINSKI,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 16-cv-7153

v.

Hon. Jorge L. Alonso

YOLANDA CASTANEDA,
ALONSO CASTANEDA,
LIV. BONNER, and OFFICER ANDRIEL J. E. CAP.

Defendants.

ORDER

Plaintiff's motion [161] for relief from judgment is denied.

STATEMENT

After granting defendants' motions for summary judgment on plaintiff's claims and relinquishing jurisdiction over defendants' state-law counterclaims, the Court entered judgment. Plaintiff Jeanette S.R. Lipinski ("Lipinski"), has filed a motion for reconsideration and relief from judgment.

A court may alter or amend a judgment if the movant "demonstrates[] manifest error of law or fact or presents[] newly discovered evidence." Leesly v. Armchair LLC, 762 F.3d 661, 666 (7th Cir. 2014). Such a motion, however, is not a means to rehash previously rejected arguments or to take a second bite at the apple. Leesly, 762 F.3d at 666. In this case, plaintiff has pointed out neither a manifest error of law, nor an error of fact. Plaintiff's arguments are those she made or could have made previously. She seems to disagree with her opponent about the facts, but the time to dispute a fact is in response to the other party's statement of facts, not in a post-judgment motion.

Pursuant to Rule 60(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, a district court may relieve a party of a judgment for, among other things, "mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect[.]" Fed.R.Civ.P. 60(b). Here, plaintiff states that she "attempted to file a response" brief in opposition to the motion for summary judgment at the same time that she filed her (properly-filed) response to the statement of facts. Plaintiff states that "[b]oth documents were submitted together," but the response brief "was never docketed by the clerk nor presumably read by the Court."

Thus, plaintiff seems to be blaming the Clerk's office for the fact that her response brief was not filed. The argument might be compelling if plaintiff could show she had attempted to file the document in the clerk's office but was thwarted. That is not what happened. Plaintiff is an electronic filer, and it is clear from the electronic-filing receipt that it was plaintiff who electronically filed her response [140] to defendants' statement of facts. Plaintiff admits both documents were "submitted together," which means it was plaintiff who is responsible for the fact that her brief was not filed. As an electronic filer, plaintiff had the responsibility of filing her brief and of checking the docket to make sure her filing was docketed. Major v. Indiana, Case No. 2:17-cv-12-JEM, 2019 WL 1894874 at *2 (N.D. Ind. April 29, 2019) (denying motion to reconsider where party had failed to file brief, explaining the party "was responsible for making sure his documents were properly filed"). Plaintiff's failure to file her brief qualifies as neglect, but it is not excusable neglect.

In any case, the Court has read the brief that plaintiff failed to file, which brief she attached to this motion. Nothing in it persuades the Court that it erred in granting the motion for summary judgment.

Because plaintiff has not shown that relief from the judgment is appropriate, the Court denies plaintiff's motion.

PLAINTIFF JEANETTE S.R. LIPINSKI ANSWER TO YOLANDA AND ALONSO
CASTANEDA'S COUNTERCLAIMS.

NOW COMES Plaintiff, JEANETTE S.R. LIPINSKI, PRO SE hereby submits this Answer to Defendant's Yolanda and Alonso's Castaneda's Counterclaims, Pursuant to Rules 26 and 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Counterclaims Paragraph 1-23 alleges.

Yolanda and Alonso Castaneda state their Counterclaims against Jeanette S.R. Lipinski as follows.

Parties

I. Yolanda Castaneda is an individual residing at 14119 Greenbay Ave., Burnham, IL, 60633 (the "Property").

ANSWER: Admits.

2. Alonso Castaneda is an individual residing at the Property.

ANSWER: Admits.

3. The Castaneda's are married and jointly own the property.

ANSWER: Plaintiff lacks knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

4. Jeannette S. R. Lipinski is the next-door neighbor of the Castaneda's and an individual residing at 14121 S. Greenbay Ave., Burnham, IL, 60633.

ANSWER: Admit.

Jurisdiction and Venue

5. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over this counterclaim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337.

ANSWER: Admits.

6. Venue is appropriate in the Northern District of Illinois as Lipinski resides within the district.

ANSWER: Admits.

Facts Common to All Counterclaims

7. On or about July 14, 2014 Lipinski intentionally poured a large amount of sodium hypochlorite (bleach) onto a grassy area of the Property adjacent to Lipinski's home where the Castaneda's dog, Rex frequently relieves himself.

ANSWER: Deny in part as to where the water and small amount of bleach at all found was poured. Admit, on July 14, 2014 a small amount of water and bleach bleach was poured onto a 3 inch size crack on the concrete block in the alley adjacent to the Castaneda's and Lipinski's property. Where the Castaneda's dog frequently urinates through the fence onto the alley concrete block crack. And where many local dog walkers let their dogs urinate on the same cracked spot as the Castaneda's dog urinates. Creating an obnoxious unhealthy odor from the heat of the summer, that is harmful to our health, her mother's, and many children who walk to school and play in the alley.

8. As a result of Lipinski's actions, the Castanedas' dog began vomiting and suffered from loss stool. The dog's paws also became discolored due to exposure to the bleached.

ANSWER: Lacking knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in this paragraph. But observed on July 15, 2014 at Sa. Ms Lipinski's front yard security camera captured Yolanda Castaneda happily walking her dog for the first time and the dog looked perfectly normal and happy to be walked.

9. The Castanedas took their dog to the vet for treatment of these symptoms.

ANSWER: Lacking knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in this paragraph.

10. Also as a result of Lipinski's actions, the grass on the area of the property where the bleach was poured turned brown and died.

ANSWER: Deny, no bleach or "bleach" was poured on the Castaneda's property grass. The Castaneda's grass and Ms. Lipinski's grass turned brown and died from the Castaneda's dog feces and frequently urinating on it through their property fence. And the neighborhood dogs urinating through the Castaneda's alley fence adjacent to the urinated concrete block in the alley.

11. Lipinski has expressed animus regarding the Castanedas and their neighbors in light of their Latin American decent.

ANSWER: Deny, Ms. Lipinski is a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, called by God, not by man. Ms. Lipinski loves all nationalities, including Latin American. God would never have called her if she was prejudice. Ms. Lipinski never expressed animus regarding the Castaneda's and neighbors in light of their Latin American decent. She believes she was obeying God in His First and Greatest Commandment, to love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and Second to Love thy neighbor as thy self. Ms. Lipinski in fact is frequently harassed, property damaged, and vandalized by the Hispanics from the false allegations the Castaneda's have told them. Ms. Lipinski was falsely arrested twice and acquitted by Hispanic neighbors on both sides of her house and daily despised by them. Ms. Lipinski prays, God forgive them for they know not what they are doing.

NEGLIGENCE

12. The Castanedas incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 11 of their counterclaims.

13. In her use of bleach, Lipinski owed a duty of care to the Castanedas insofar as her use therefore was required to not harm the Castanedas or their property.

Answer: Deny. Ms Lipinski was not negligent of the law in duty of care to the Castaneda's or their property. Duty of care is a requirement that a person act toward others and the public with the watchfulness, attention, caution and prudence that a reasonable person in the circumstances would use. Ms Lipinski acted with much care to protect her mother and neighbors from the Castaneda's negligence to clean up after their dog and prevent harmful odors, germs and disease. And acted in the fear of God to obey His commandment to love thy neighbor.

14. Lipinski breached such duty when she failed to use this noxious liquid in a reasonable manner by saturating a parcel of Property with the chemical, knowing full well the Castaneda's dog walked and grass grew in that area.

Answer: Deny. Ms Lipinski breached no such duty, nor failed to use cleaning liquid disinfectant in an unreasonable manner, and never saturated a parcel of Castaneda's property with the cleaning liquid disinfectant, to harm the Castaneda's dog or grass. Ms Lipinski was cleaning her garage when she saw that the Castaneda's were getting ready to cut their backyard grass, and that they put their dog in the house, Ms Lipinski felt it was the best time to help love her neighbors by cleaning the obnoxious dogs urine odor in the alley. Note, there is no grass in the alley except on Ms Lipinski's property, and the dog is never walked in the alley or elsewhere.

15. Lipinski knew or should have known of the danger to the Castaneda's dog and their property of the pouring of the noxious liquid onto the property.

ANSWER: Deny, pouring Noxious liquid to Castaneda's property. Not put their dog in danger. Ms. Lipinski knew there was no danger to the dog or property because the dog was in the house and not of their property. Ms Lipinski took every precaution as to not harm the dog or their property, but only to help prevent harm to them. Her concern was for the health, safety, and concern for her neighbors and loved ones. Ms. Lipinski loves dogs and raised two generations of toy poodles for 17 yrs. It is the Village of Burnham alley's property. It is our responsibility to maintain the area around our homes according to the Village ordinances. Sec. 2-323 (1) to keep the streets and alleys of the village clean and free of obnoxious. The dog urine saturated concrete in the alley was never cleaned and a health hazard in the making. Ms. Lipinski chose simply to prevent harm from happening.

16. In fact, the warning label attached to bottles of bleach identifies the substance as corrosive and caustic against skin contact. It further warns to if the skin is contaminated with bleach and to contact a physician or medical center immediately.

ANSWER: Admits the label for Disinfecting line 69. Do not use full strength for cleaning surfaces. Always dilute with water strictly in accordance with the directions. For prolonged use, wear gloves. Disinfects hard nonporous surfaces against Salmonella, enterica, Staphylococcus aureus, Escherichia coli O157:H7 and influenza A virus. Bleach is also used in the laundry clothes against virus. Ms. Lipinski read the directions and followed the instructions.

17. Lipinski's actions were willful, wanton, and malicious.

ANSWER: Deny, malicious to cause harm to dog or property. Admits, willful to protect the health and safety of her neighbors, her mother and self. Deny, willful wanton to harm others. For it is a sin to deliberately harm others that would cost her, her salvation and eternal life.

18. The injury to the Castaneda's property, namely their dog and their grass, was proximately caused by Lipinski's pouring of bleach onto the property.

ANSWER, Deny. Ms. Lipinski did not pour bleach onto the Castaneda's property grass to harm or injure their dog.

19. The Castaneda's were damaged in the amount of the veterinary bills incurred for treatment of their dog and sodding purchased to repair their grass.

ANSWER: Deny. There was never a veterinary bills for treatment of their dog being produced presented in court. And sodding was never done to their property.

COUNT II
TRESPASS TO PROPERTY

20. The Castanedas incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 11 of their counterclaims.

21. In her use of bleach, Lipinski owed a duty of care to the Castanedas insofar as her use thereof was required to not harm the Castanedas or their property.

ANSWER: Deny. Plaintiff Ms. Jeanette S.R. Lipinski was found not guilty of poisoning their dog or harming there property by a standing Judge. Ms Lipinski did not use bleach on the Castaneda's property, nor to harm their dog. She only cared for others, even the Castaneda's, and their dog.

22. Lipinski's actions were willful, wanton and malicious.

ANSWER: Deny. Ms. Lipinski's actions were not willful, wanton, and malicious.

But only to please God and her neighbors, and to obey God's Greatest commandment to Love Him and thy neighbor as oneself.

23. As a result of Lipinski's trespass, the grass on the Castanedas' Property was damaged.

ANSWER. Deny, the Castaneda's property grass was damaged by Ms. Lipinski. The true facts are that their grass was damaged only from their dog urination and feces.

and neighborhood dogs. And Ms. Lipinski's property was severely damaged from their dog urinating through their fence connected to Ms. Lipinski's property, and from not picking up their dog's feces, and letting it run down into Ms. Lipinski's backyard and garage when it rains.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Ms. Jeanette S.R. Lipinski prays that this Court enter judgement in her favor and against Yolanda Castaneda and Alonso Castaneda, and dismiss their Counterclaims with prejudice; and award Plaintiff Ms. Lipinski's for damages caused to her property together with interest, costs, punitive damages and whatever further relief this Court deems appropriate.

JEANETTE LIPINSKI Plaintiff	No. 16 CV 7153
v. YOLANDA CASTANEDA, an individual; ALONSO CASTANEDA, an individual; L.T. BONNER #79, in his individual and officer capacity; OFFICER ANDRIELLE CAP #77; in her individual and officer capacity; and Susan E. Cox VILLAGE OF BURNHAM, a municipal corporation	Hon. Jorge L. Alonso Magistrate Hon. Susan Cox JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S JOINT STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS
ENTITLING THEM TO SUMMARY JUDGMENT

This is in response to "The Castaneda's Motion for Summary Judgment Against Lipinski" doc #130 filed on 10/1/18, and the "Castaneda's' Memorandum in Support of their Motion for Summary Judgment against Lipinski" doc #133 filed 10/1/18 and "Defendants' Joint Settlement of Material Facts Entitling The to Summary Judgment Against Lipinski," Doc No.132 filed 10/1/18.

STATEMENTS:

Statements 1 to 8 are not disputed.

9. Plaintiff disputes and demands strict proof thereof.

Plaintiff Lipinski's Answers to the Interrogatories of the Castaneda's

10. Disputed the grass died from bleach. Agreed the dog relieved himself in that approximate area.
11. Disputed.
12. Disputed. Plaintiff had not used bleach in the area "a few days earlier."
13. Disputed that bleach caused any discoloration of paw pads or death of grass.
14. Disputed. Plaintiff disputed she poured bleach in the Castaneda's yard or that bleach kills grass; dog urine kills grass.
15. Disputed. Plaintiff never expressed a dislike of the dog. She is an animal lover. She admits that she did not like the fact the Castaneda's never walked their dog, but she never blamed the dog for what the Castaneda's failed to do to properly care for their dog. The Castaneda's have a large dog which should be walked every day and they never walk their dog. Plaintiff Jeanette in the past often cleaned the alley of dog urine and feces and she never complained because she felt she was doing something good for the community and on that basis she was glad to do it. It was her Christian duty to do this with a joyful heart because she knew she was helping others.
16. Disputed. Officer Kus said this and so did a police report.
17. Disputed that there was a "strong smell of chemicals" or that someone's throat "would burn" from bleach. Bleach is used all the time in public bathrooms, swimming pools, and in clothes laundry. It is considered a safe effective disinfecting agent. It is likely the smell was from the bleach and dog urine combined.

18. Denied that any complaints Plaintiff Jeanette filed were unfounded. But Plaintiff objects to this statement as overly vague. What "unfounded complaints?"
19. Disputed as to what happened after the officers returned to the station and Plaintiff demands strict proof thereof.
20. Not in dispute.
21. Disputed as to taking the dog to a vet, and what was said, and Plaintiff demands strict proof thereof. Antibiotics are not prescribed for poison. They are prescribed for a bacterial illness. If the dog had been poisoned, the vet would have given the dog a drug to produce vomiting or pumped the dog's stomach. A stomach soothing agent would have been prescribed for a sick dog (bacterial infection) that had been vomiting.
22. Undisputed.
23. Disputed as to Yolanda Castaneda being subpoenaed to court. Plaintiff demands strict proof thereof.
24. Disputed as to what Deft. Yolanda Castaneda handed to the States Attorney.
25. Undisputed as to the trial, disputed or unknown as to what Deft. Yolanda Castaneda was subpoenaed.
26. Disputed as to what Deft. Yolanda Castaneda testified to. Plaintiff Jeanette did not record the trial, does not remember, and the court reporter told her the transcript for some reason is not available.

27. Not disputed.
28. Not Disputed except for the court file and records being destroyed. Plaintiff has no idea what happens with expunged files; she believes they are still there but not available to the public without further court order.
29. Not disputed. The dog is alive and healthy and was at all times.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

1 Q Can you tell me about the incident in
2 May of 2016?
3 A I'm trying to think back. I would have to 4 have the police report in front of me, which I do, I
5 have it upstairs. But the police were called, I'm 6 not sure exactly why. It was something that the 7 Castaneda's had done. And Luis and another officer
8 went over and talked with them, and then he came back
9 and told me that the dog had died. I said no, the 10 dog didn't die, there was nothing wrong with the dog.
11 Q Ms. Lipinski, when was the last time you saw 12 the dog?
13 A Yesterday.
14 Q Ms. Lipinski, did either Yolanda or 15 Alonso Castaneda give you permission to pour bleach
16 on to their backyard?
17 A I didn't pour bleach in their backyard.
18 Q That wasn't my question, Ms. Lipinski.
19 A No.
20 Q Ms. Lipinski, you testified earlier that
21 the — that you were in shock due to the false
22 arrest?
23 A Yes.
24 Q Did you suffer any monetary damages as a

55
1 Lipinski Exhibit 3. It's a copy of your disclosures.
2 Okay?
3 A Okay.
4 Q All right. Ms. Lipinski, I want to turn to 5 Page 2. About halfway down, it says Yesenia Chavez,
6 you listed as a neighbor, who has knowledge of false
7 arrest charges and resides at that address listed
8 there?
9 A Yes.
10 Q Who is Yesenia Chavez.
11 A She's the daughter of Irma Chavez, my 12 neighbor.
13 Q Okay. So your house, you have two neighbors
14 on either side, right?
15 A Yes.
16 Q Or excuse me. One neighbor on either side?
17 A Uh-huh.
18 Q And the Chavezes are —
19 A South side.
20 Q South side.
21 And the Castanedas are the north side
22 neighbors?
23 A Yes.
24 Q Why would Yesenia Chavez have knowledge of 54

1 result of this trial?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Can you please tell me what those damages
4 are?
5 A I can't. Excuse me.
6 Q Ms. Lipinski, if you aren't able to expand
7 any further, that was my only question I had today.
8 Maybe we could take a break before finishing.
9 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're going off the record at 10 1:01 p.m.
11 (Recording taken.)
12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Good afternoon. We are back
13 on the video record at 1:08 p.m.
14 FURTHER EXAMINATION
15 BY MR. DOBER:
16 Q Ms. Lipinski, we're — we're almost done. I
17 just want to go through your Rule 26(a)(1) initial 18 disclosures. Okay?
19 A Okay.
20 (Whereupon Lipinski Deposition Exhibit 3
21 was marked for identification.)
22 BY MR. DOBER:
23 Q What I'm going to hand you — What the court
24 reporter's going to hand you is going to be marked as

56
1 the false arrest?
2 A Because Yolanda Castaneda told her.
3 Q How do you know that Yolanda Castaneda told
4 Yesenia Chavez?
5 A Because we were friends until Yolanda talked
6 to them.
7 Q The next neighbor is Edward and
8 Shirley Brock?
9 A Correct.
10 Q Who are Edward and Shirley Brock?
11 A They're the second house north of the next to 12 the Castanedas.
13 Q And why would they have knowledge of the 14 false arrest charges?
15 A Because they talked to each other all the 16 time.
17 Q Did you ever hear them over — Did you ever
18 overhear them talking about it?
19 A No, I know they were having conversations, 20 but, like, I could not make out what they were 21 saying.
22 Q Turning to the third page, ma'am. It looks
23 like Officer Jesus Avila, he would have knowledge —
24 or he's an officer of the police — Burnham Police

SHE STATED THAT SHE IS BEING HARASSED BY HER NEIGHBORS ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF HER HOUSE. WHEN ASKED AS TO WHAT WAS HARASSED SHE STATED THAT SHE THOUGHT IT TO BE APPROXIMATELY 11:30 APPROXIMATELY 11:30 THAT SHE FOUND WHAT SHE STATED WERE ITEMS DROPPED ON HARASS HER. ONE POLICE OFFICER RECOVERED ITEMS THAT SHE PLACED IN PLASTIC BAGS AND LABELED WITH THE TIME SHE RECOVERED SAID ITEMS. A SUMMARY OF ITEMS ARE AS FOLLOWS: A CIGAR BUTT FROM LEO. THIS WAS FOUND INSIDE THE FIRE TRAY IN THE FRONT OF THE HOUSE. A VINE COSE THAT WAS TAKEN OUT OF THE FIRE TRAY BY A NEIGHBOR. PINECOKE PAPER FROM FIRE WORKS THAT SHE RECOVERED AFTER A FEWTH OF JULY CELEBRATION. AN EVA BOTTLE FRAGMENT FROM THE FRONT OF THE HOUSE. SHE STATED THAT ITEMS WERE PLACED THERE BY HER NEIGHBORS IN AN ATTEMPT TO DRIVE HER TO SUE. SHE SAID ANYONE PLACING THE ITEMS ON HER PROPERTY SHE STATED THAT SHE DID NOT KNOW WHO SHE WAS. SHE WAS STATING THE NEIGHBORS WERE DOING THIS. SHE SAID TO KILL HER JUST LIKE THEY DID HER MOTHER. THE COMPLAINANT ALSO RELATED TO D/C THAT SHE ATTEMPTED TO SPEAK WITH HER NEIGHBORS BUT THEY REPLIED "BAMBOOZLE" AND "WE DON'T WORRY".
D/C ADVISED THAT SHE TALKED WITH HER NEIGHBORS RECENTLY.
RECENTLY SHE TALKED WITH HER NEIGHBORS AGAIN BY MAKING AN APPOINTMENT.

D/C. FERGUSON TALKED TO THE COMPLAINANT'S NEIGHBORS TO THE SOUTH AT 14118 GREENBAY LIMA AND MARCEL CHATEL. D/C ASKED IF THEY HAD ANY ENDING FEUDS WITH THE COMPLAINANT. AND THEY STATED THAT THEY LEFT THEIR CHILDREN IN THE HOUSE SO AS NOT TO DISTURB THE COMPLAINANT AGAIN AND SHE COMPLAINED ABOUT HER CHILDREN PLAYING ON HER LAWN OR TOO LOUDLY. SHE ALSO STATED THAT THEY TRY AND KEEP THE COMPLAINANT BY INVOLVING HER IN IT AND GETTING HER GRAVE BUT DO NOT FEEL COMFORTABLE TALKING TO HER. D/C. FERGUSON ALSO SPOKE WITH TOLUCA CASTRODEZA WHO LIVES IN THE NORTH AT 14118 GREENBAY. D/C ADVISED MRS. CASTRODEZA OF THE COMPLAINANT'S VANDALISM AND HARASSEMENT THAT HER NEIGHBOR, MR. LIBERTY, HAS MADE AGAINST HER AND HER HUSBAND. MRS. CASTRODEZA STATED THAT THERE IS NO TRUTH TO THE COMPLAINANT. SHE ALSO STATED THAT SHE DOES NOT UNDERSTAND THOSE COMPLAINANTS WHEN SHE AND HER HUSBAND FEEL HARASSED BY THE MR. LIBERTY. MRS. CASTRODEZA STATED THAT SHE FEELS THAT SHE IS OUT IN HER YARD THAT MR. LIBERTY TAKES PICTURES OF THEM. SHE ALSO STATED THAT SHE FEELS MR. LIBERTY COMPLAINED ABOUT HER DOG. MR. LIBERTY STATED PREVIOUSLY HE HAD ALSO, WHICH MR. LIBERTY COMPLAINED ABOUT HER VEHICLE THAT WAS PARKED IN FRONT OF HIS HOME. HER VEHICLE WERE VANDALIZED WITH SPRAY PAINT AND BUMPS. MRS. CASTRODEZA SAID THAT THEY HAVE INSTALLED CAMERAS ON THE EXTERIOR OF THEIR HOME IN FEAR THAT MR. LIBERTY MIGHT TRY AND HARM THEIR DOG OR HURT SHOOTING GUNSHOT AT THIS TIME.

their property with any type of marker or flag. Therefore, Plaintiff Jeanette reserves the right to update these answers which such a task has been complete. The court should order it to make sure the answers are correct. Why the Castenedas are asserting Trespass without having done so is a complete mystery.

RESPONSE: Denied, Jeanette poured a dilute bleach solution at all times not directly onto the Casteneda's property, but only on the adjacent concrete slab. Without a survey, I do not believe this is part of the "Casteneda's property." The Casteneda's must provide a diagram from their actual plat of survey to determine what portion of the alley belongs to Burnham Village ("Burnham Village") and what portion they actually own.
