Dear Counsel:

We are pleased to advise that you have been appointed to represent on appeal the indigent litigant named above. This work is comparable to work performed pro bono publico. The fee you will receive likely will be less than your customary one due to limitations on the hourly rate of compensation contained in the Criminal Justice Act (18 U.S.C. § 3006A), and consideration of the factors contained in Addendum Four § (g)(1) of the Eleventh Circuit Rules.

Supporting documentation and a link to the CJA eVoucher application are available on the internet at <http://www.ca11.uscourts.gov/attorney-info/criminal-justice-act>. For questions concerning CJA eVoucher please contact our CJA Team by email at cja_evoucher@ca11.uscourts.gov or phone 404-335-6167. For all other questions, please call the "Reply To" number shown below.

Every motion, petition, brief, answer, response and reply filed must contain a Certificate of Interested Persons and Corporate Disclosure Statement (CIP). Appellants/Petitioners must file a CIP within 14 days after the date the case or appeal is docketed in this court; Appellees/Respondents/Intervenors/Other Parties must file a CIP within 28 days after the case or appeal is docketed in this court, regardless of whether appellants/petitioners have filed a CIP. See FRAP 26.1 and 11th Cir. R. 26.1-1.

On the same day a party or amicus curiae first files its paper or e-filed CIP, that filer must also complete the court's web-based CIP at the Web-Based CIP link on the court's website. Pro se filers (except attorneys appearing in particular cases as pro se parties) are not required or authorized to complete the web-based CIP.

Your claim for compensation under the Act should be submitted within 60 days after issuance of mandate or filing of a certiorari petition. We request that you enclose with your completed CJA Voucher one additional copy of each brief, petition for rehearing, and certiorari petition which you have filed. Please ensure that your voucher includes a detailed description of the work you performed. Thank you for accepting this appointment under the Criminal Justice Act.

Sincerely,
