

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES
OFFICE OF THE CLERK

(Petitioner), DONALD STEPHEN YAAG (PRO SE)
VS.

(Respondents), RENEE BAKER-WARDEN et al

CASE NO. 21-6169

PETITION FOR REHEARING-PURSUANT TO
RULE 44 AND 44-6

GROUND-ONE-Petitioner's Petition consist of material and EXCULPATORY evidence Proving Petitioner was incarcerated in a California Prison at the time false-allegations were lodged against him. It is of National importance that the Courts review this evidence showing that Yaag was in a California Prison during the time Frame, The State charged Yaag For.

GROUND-TWO: Counsel was Ineffective, Counsel's own admission of his failures to exercise Due Diligence, and failure to Present exculpatory evidence that will exonerate,
Yaag

GROUND THREE: The Trial Court and The Federal Court's failures to hold an evidentiary hearing pertaining to Yaag's Actual Innocence Pursuant to document that Proves-

RECEIVED

FEB 23 2022

OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT, U.S.

1 YAGG was imprisoned in a California Prison, violates
2 YAGG's (6th and 14th) Amendment to the United States.
3 GROUND FOUR: A state Prosecutor and YAGG's Trial
4 Judge is responsible for providing YAGG with Counsel
5 that was incompetent, and conspired together to hide
6 the evidence from Jury members that would
7 have exonerated YAGG, A violation of YAGG's 6th, 14th
8 Amendments and A violation of the Canon Codes of 9 Judicial Ethics + Canon Codes.
10 GROUND-FIVE: THE TRIAL JUDGE AND FEDERAL JUDGE'S
11 Speculated using self gratifying theories in changing-
12 an alleged victim's testimony and state's case, by stating
13 that the alleged victim could have been mistaken, once
14 the lower court and Federal realized YAGG possessed
15 exculpatory evidence impeaching the alleged victim's
16 testimony, rendering the testimony unreliable.

17

18 CONCLUSION

19 Petitioner, in Pro se, Prays that this Court's review
20 of the exculpatory evidence showing that YAGG
21 was in a California Prison during the time frame
22 of the state prosecutor's charges and the alleged 23 victims surrounding testimony, "Reflects YAGG's Actual
24 Innocence That The lower Courts wishes to ignore,
25 And that this issue is of National importance.

26

27 Certificate of Service by Mail

28 Petitioner Certify that I presented the above-

1 documents⁺ were presented to the law library clerk
2 for mailing as addressed below:

3

4 ~~Supreme Court of the U.S.~~ ~~Aaron Ford~~ ~~Attorney General~~

5 office, of the Clerk ~~1012 Carson Street~~

6 Washington, DC ~~Carson City, NV~~

7 ~~20543-0001~~ ~~89701~~

8

9 Signature: Donald Stephen Young

10 Name Donald Stephen Young Doc no. 1034734

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE

2 I hereby certify that the grounds presented

3 are limited to intervening circumstances of

4 substantial or controlling effect and to other

5 substantial grounds not previously presented.

6 This Petition for Rehearing is presented pursuant

7 to Rule 44 and 44-6, and pursuant to Yeas's

8 Petition for writ of Certiorari that was

9 filed in this Court. Yeas incorporates this

10 Petition for Rehearing in relations to the Petition

11 filed in this Court for Certiorari.

12 Dated this 14th day of February 2022

14 Signature: Donell Stephen Yeas

15 NAME: Donald Stephen Yeas #1034734

28

27

26

25

24

23

22

21

20

19

18

17

16