PETITION FOR REHEARING

Petitioner Jason T Shortes petition for rehearing of this Court's January 18, 2022

Order denying their petition for a writ of certiorari.

REASONS FOR GRANTING REHEARING

This Court's Rule 44.2 authorizes a petition for rehearing based on "intervening circumstances of a substantial . . . effect."

The critical fact Court has overlooked or misapprehended that Court's, Order "The petition for writ of certiorari is denied." inadvertently sanctions, gives official permission, or approval, to GOOGLE, LLC enforcing Federal Republic of Germany, The Network Enforcement Law, NetzDG in United States, State of Florida, thereby nullifying First Amendment To The United States Constitution, Freedom of the Press and Freedom of Expression and nullifying "Florida Statute 542.18 Restraint Of Trade" and "Florida Statute 542.19 Restraint Of Commerce." The Commerce Clause refers to Article 1, Section 8, Clause 3 of the U.S. Constitution. That Petitioner respectfully asks, and is legally entitled that the Court to apply a focused interpretation with application of law, at the Court opinion in "Google LLC v. Equustek Solutions Inc., 2017 WL 5000834 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 2, 2017). The Court Held: "The Canadian order would eliminate Section 230 immunity for service providers that link to third-party websites. By forcing intermediaries to remove links to third-party material, the Canadian order undermines the policy goals of Section 230 and threatens free speech on the global internet;" That in conjunction with Petitioner's Brief appeal request for interpretation, and application of law therein Petitioner's Brief. That rehearing is warranted as demonstrated above and en banc consideration is necessary to maintain uniformity within the Court's decisions.

Surf Club v. Tatem Surf Club, Inc., 10 So. 2d 554, 557-61 (Fla. 1942), prevailed in obtaining rehearing because it was able to direct the Court's attention both to a controlling statute that changed the result and to the portions of the record and briefs where the statute was argued.

The other critical facts Court has overlooked or misapprehended relevant statutory laws and case laws demonstrated in petition for writ of certiorari in support of pro se Petitioner.

PETITION FOR CERTIFICATION

Petitioner Jason T. Shortes moves for certification of a question of great public importance pursuant to Supreme Court Rules Rule 19. Procedure on a Certified Question.

Consumers are unable to defend themselves adequately against these unlawful practices, that GOOGLE, LLC enforcing Federal Republic of Germany, The Network Enforcement Law, NetzDG in State of Florida, as United States Legislature and this Supreme Court of the United States absolutely recognizes First Amendment to the United States Constitution, trade activities between the states "Florida Statute 542.18 Restraint Of Trade" and U.S. Constitution, through the Commerce Clause in conjunction with "Florida Statute 542.19 Restraint Of Commerce." Indeed, this Court should realize that the enforcement of such invalid Federal Republic of Germany, The Network Enforcement Law, NetzDG Law that GOOGLE, LLC's enforcement use are widespread and harmful. Thus, while this Court did not grant the Petitioner in their requested relief, it understood the magnitude of the issue by certifying a questions presented in Petition For Writ Of Certiorari.

PETITION FOR ISSUANCE OF A WRITTEN OPINION

Petitioner, Jason T. Shortes by and through himself undersigned counsel and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §411, moves this Court for issuance of a written opinion and, separately, for rehearing and rehearing en banc.

28 U.S. Code § 411 provides: “The decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States shall be printed, bound, and distributed in the preliminary prints and bound volumes of the United States Reports as soon as practicable after rendition, to be charged to the proper appropriation for the judiciary. The number and distribution of the copies shall be under the control of the Joint Committee on Printing.” Such is the case here.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner Jason T. Shortes prays that this Court would withdraw the denial and issue an opinion that addresses the conflicts raised above so as to allow the Petitioner to pursue certiorari review in the Supreme Court of the United States or, alternatively, rehear the case as a panel or en banc in order to address the intra-district splits Petitioner has identified that the per curiam affirmation implicitly creates but avoids identifying by way of the lack of a written opinion.

Without a decision explaining the Court’s reasoning, there is no way to argue that the decision “expressly and directly” conflicts with existing Court precedent.

I express a belief, based upon a reasoned and studied professional judgment, that a written opinion will provide a legitimate basis for Supreme Court review because a written opinion in this case will reveal express and direct conflict with case law demonstrated in Petitioner’s Brief, First Amendment to The United States Constitution Freedom of the Press and Freedom of Expression, and “Florida Statute 542.18 Restraint Of Trade" and "Florida Statute 542.19 Restraint Of Commerce." on the same question of law, or would allow the Court to certify the question described above as one of great public importance, either of which alternatives would provide the Supreme Court with jurisdiction to review this case pursuant to Constitution of United States of America.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth in this Petition, Jason T. Shortes respectfully requests this Honorable Court grant rehearing and his Petition for a Writ of Certiorari.

CERTIFICATE OF PRO SE COUNSEL

Compliance with 28 U. S. C. § 1746 "I declare (or certify, verify, or state) under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct."

As Counsel on behalf of himself I certify that this petition for rehearing is in good faith and not for delay and is restricted to the grounds specified in Rule 44.2

Respectfully Submitted,
