United States Court of Appeals
FOR THE SECOND CIRCUIT

At a stated term of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, held at the Thurgood Marshall United States Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, in the City of New York, on the 19th day of March, two thousand twenty-one.

Present:

Dennis Jacobs,
Rosemary S. Pooler,
Michael H. Park,
Circuit Judges.

Tre McPherson, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, et al.,

Plaintiffs-Appellees,

v.

20-2949(L)

Ned Lamont, in their individual capacities,
Rollin Cook, in their individual capacities,

Defendants-Appellees,

v.

Michael A. Young, Derrick Taylor,

Movants-Appellants.¹

Appellant Michael A. Young, pro se, moves for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, for free transcripts, and for “color of law” relief. This Court has determined, nostra sponte, that it lacks jurisdiction over this appeal because it is moot. Tann v. Bennett, 807 F.3d 51, 52 (2d Cir. 2015) (per curiam) (“A case is moot when the issues presented are no longer live or the parties lack a legally cognizable interest in the outcome.” (internal quotation marks omitted)). The settlement agreement from which Young appealed expired on December 31, 2020. D. Conn. 20-cv-534, doc. 272. “In order to satisfy the [Constitution’s] case-or-controversy requirement, a party must, at all stages of the litigation, have an actual injury which is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial decision.” United States v. Williams, 475 F.3d 468, 478–79 (2d Cir. 2007) (quotation marks omitted). Thus, “if an event occurs during the course of the proceedings or on appeal that makes it impossible for the court to grant any effectual relief whatever to a prevailing party, [this Court] must dismiss the case.” Id. at 479 (quotation marks omitted).

Upon due consideration, it is hereby ORDERED that the appeal is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction. The termination of the settlement agreement, Young is no longer affected by its terms, such that there is no longer an actual injury that can be redressed. See, e.g., Nat'l Org. for Marriage, Inc. v. Walsh, 714 F.3d 682, 692 (2d Cir. 2013) (“Federal courts have no constitutional power to consider a moot case, which does not present a live controversy.”). It is further ORDERED that Appellant’s remaining motions are DENIED as moot.

FOR THE COURT:

Catherine O’Hagan Wolfe, Clerk of Court

The image shows a handwritten signature of Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe in black ink, positioned above a circular official seal. The seal is divided into four quadrants by a cross. The top half contains the text 'UNITED STATES' and the bottom half contains 'COURT OF APPEALS'. The left half contains 'SECOND CIRCUIT' and the right half contains 'NEW YORK'. The signature is written in a cursive script and overlaps the bottom right portion of the seal.

05/18/2020	61	ORDER denying 57 Respondents' Motion in Limine to Preclude Undisclosed Expert Testimony of Dr. Robert Murphy. Plaintiffs were ordered to provide a list of expert and lay witnesses by the close of business on May 15, 2020. 52 . On May 15, 2020, Plaintiffs informed Defendants' counsel that they intended to call Dr. Robert L. Murphy as one of their expert witnesses and that the doctor's qualifications, declaration and disclosure would be forthcoming. On Sunday, May 17, Dr. Murphy's declaration was forwarded to defendants. Plaintiffs state that they transmitted the declaration as soon as they had it. Plaintiffs need to substitute a different infectious disease doctor, rather than use a doctor who previously provided a declaration, was driven by exigencies of the current pandemic and the pressing responsibilities of prominent, busy, clinicians. Further, Plaintiffs represent that Dr. Murphy's testimony closely tracks that previously provided by Dr. Golub, as well as that of Plaintiffs' other medical declarants. While the Court understands the demands on Defendants and their counsel, they are not unduly prejudiced. Counsel knew as of last week that Plaintiffs might provide a substitute expert due to the tight scheduling requirements, and that the substitute witness's qualifications and testimony would be consistent with prior declarations filed in support of a TRO and/or preliminary injunction. Nor, are Defendants prejudiced by a lack of an expert report prior to a deposition. As set forth during the conferences on May 11 and 14, the parties are engaging in expedited discovery and there is insufficient time for perfect Rule 26 disclosures. See McPherson v. Lamont, Civ. No. 3:20-cv-00534 (JBA), ECF No. 56, at *1 (D. Conn. May 16, 2020) (quoting In re World Trade Ctr. Disaster Site Litig., 722 F.3d 483, 487 (2d Cir. 2013) (It is well established that district courts possess the inherent power and responsibility to manage their dockets 'so as to achieve the orderly and expeditious disposition of cases.'). Defendants will have an opportunity to depose Dr. Murphy and inquire into his credentials, experience and basis for his opinion. On this record, the Court finds no surprise or prejudice to Defendants in the substitution of Dr. Murphy as an expert witness. See, id., at *2 (finding exigent circumstances exist warranting an expedited schedule and noting that Defendants have had notice of Plaintiffs' claims since the case was filed on April 20, 2020, and to review the evidence filed in support of a TRO and Preliminary Injunction since April 27, 2020). The Court remains available to address issues as they arise on an expedited schedule.

		While the parties have a right to be heard on their objections and to develop a record, there is limited time remaining to prepare for a preliminary injunction hearing on May 22, 2020. The parties are strongly encouraged to contact the Court rather than engage in motion practice and delay a ruling. Signed by Judge William I. Garfinkel on 5/18/20. (Esposito, A.) 07/21/2020	178	ORDER: On July 20, 2020, the Court conducted a Fairness Hearing by videoconference to review the [160-1] Modified Settlement Agreement and General Release. The Court found the Settlement to be "fair, reasonable, and adequate." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23. Specifically, the Court found that settlement was the product of arm's length negotiations conducted by experienced counsel, and so enjoyed a presumption of fairness. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litig. , 80 F. Supp. 2d 164, 173 (S.D.N.Y. 2000), aff'd sub nom. D'Amato v. Deutsche Bank , 236 F.3d 78 (2d Cir. 2001). The Court also found that factors articulated in City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp. , 495 F.2d 448, 463 (2d Cir. 1974), abrogated on other grounds by Goldberger v. Integrated Resources, Inc. , 209 F.3d 43 (2d Cir. 2000), weighed in favor of approval.
